

spend more than $2,780 naturally followed and sentenced to imprisonment were immediately passed.

"All charges of bribery and corruption were, however, brushed by the specific order of the presiding judge.

"On appeal, the Supreme court of the United States reversed the action of the court below because, as stated by Chief Justice White, of the grave misapprehension and the grievous misapplication of the statute, which was also declared unconstitutional.

Has Kept the Faith.

"A protracted investigation before the committee on privy elections and elections of the senate resulted in a report stating my election, and after a bitter partisan debate the senate declared that I was entitled to my seat.

"In view of all these proceedings my right to my seat has been fully confirmed, and I am thankful to have been permitted to serve my state and my country, and to have the eternal satisfaction of having by my vote aided in keeping the United States out of the league of nations.

"For those who so patriotically and unselfishly worked for my election and in defense of my own honor, that of my family and friends, I have fought the fight and kept the faith. The time has come, however, when I can conscientiously lay down the burden, and I do so with the most cheerful heart.

"In the future, I shall not hesitate to offer my services to the state which I love and the country I revere."

Shuts Off Action Today.

Senator Newberry's resignation comes just in time to prevent a reopening of the case against him, as a new resolution had been prepared for introduction in the senate tomorrow noon declaring him not entitled to his seat. Senator Caraway (Ark.), one of the Democratic leaders and one who was most reticent in the fight against Newberry, had prepared it.

Tonight, upon learning of the resignation of the Michigan senator, Senator Caraway said he would, of course, withhold his resolution. "I am sorry he did it," Senator Caraway said. "He has cheated the senate of a chance to vindicate itself before the nation."

Republican leaders for the most part believe the course taken by the Michigan senator will remove "Newberryism" as a political issue. Many of them frankly admit it was an effective weapon in the hands of the opposition in the last election.

From Two Opponents.

The Michigan senator's supporters tonight would not comment. Representative Kelly (Mich.), Republican, one of the candidates against Senator Townsend in the Republican senatorial primary, said: "It was the wise thing for Senator Newberry to do."

Senator Pat Harrison (Miss.), one of the Democratic leaders in the fight against Newberry, said:

"Senator Newberry's resignation will be welcome news to the whole country. If he had resigned before the primaries, or before the election at the latest, it would have saved from great embarrassment some of his staunchest friends and supporters."

Senator Borah (Idaho), Republican, who voted to unseat Newberry at the senate trial, declared: "I will let my vote speak for itself. There is really nothing more that I could say."

Senator Ladd, North Dakota: "A very wise move. He took the right course—the only one that could be taken."

"Frankly satisfied," Townsend.

Jackson, Mich., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Senator Newberry and his family have suffered long enough the unjust abuse of partisan enemies who are not in his class as statesmen or patriots.

—England and France will go to Lausanne united on a near eastern policy, and ready to fight, if need be, to uphold it.

2—Turkey, the leader of the Mohammedan world, is backed by Russia, self-styled champion of all oppressed peoples. Russia is not going to stand on certain questions. He has got to agree to vote against the league of nations and to stand for some definite policy on the federal control of fuel, the tariff question, and the rail problem.

"The bureaucratic form of government ought to go into the discard. The government should be run with the same efficiency that a private corporation, properly directed, is run."

"Questions like the tariff and the railroads should be settled for all time. What's the sense of tampering with the tariff every time we have a change in administration?"

"Was Wise," Ferris Says.

Big Rapids, Mich., Nov. 19.—(United News.)—The resignation of Senator Newberry is the forerunner of an era of "cleaner politics" for the nation and has "saved the United States

A MASTERPIECE IN ART ON SPECIAL EXHIBITON

Finest Persian Rug Ever Brought to Chicago Now on Three-Day Showing

YOU are invited to view this rare Persian Rug today, tomorrow or Wednesday. It is an opportunity no lover of the beautiful should miss. It seems inconceivable that one human being could have had the skill, the artistic talent and the infinite patience to create such a rug. There are 725 hand-tied knots to the square inch—more than 7,000,000 in the entire rug. It took one man more than 10 years, working at 10 hours a day, to complete. And the size of this exquisite rug is but 6 x 9.2 feet.

A Symphony in Color

THIS rug was specially woven in Kerman for Serdar Raschid, Governor of Tabriz, but was not delivered because of his assassination by Persian Revolutionists in 1919. Its tiny figured border of exotic flowers blends and reblends to form a charming Paisley Shawl design which is surmounted by an octagonal field, symbolic of a flowing river. Moss-hung trees shade the stream and through their leaves the sunlight filters, now heightening and now deepening the hue of the marine plants which rest on the bosom of the stream. These plants are all in flower and in the entire rug there are no two plants alike. Hours of study will reveal feature after feature to delight you.

This is one of the rarest specimens we have ever purchased and we sincerely hope that you will be one of those to view it today, tomorrow or Wednesday.

LAUSANNE PIVOT OF ALL ISLAM'S FREEDOM DRIVE

Subject Races United for War on England.

BY V. DE SANTO.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
ROME, Nov. 19.—(By Tribune Wireless.)—For the last two years representatives of the Mussulman people from Asia, Africa, and eastern Europe have been concentrating in Italy, especially in Rome. Most of them are escaped political prisoners or native Nationalists who have been exiled by England or other western nations who rule over the Mussulman countries.

Despite the fact that they are from lands far away from each other, they have united in a great cause—the liberation of the whole Mussulman world from the yoke, rule, or influence of foreign nations. India, Turkey, Mesopotamia, Trans-Jordan, Arabia, Palestine, Tripoli, Tunis, and Algeria are in the league against what they call Christian oppression.

Dr. Abdul Hamid Pasha, a man of exceptional ability, a great organizer, who was exiled from Egypt by the British, is the president of the league. He is nearly 7 feet tall. In conversation he is as imposing mentally as in stature. Missions and emissaries from far away lands come and go

BONUS MONEY NEEDED TO AID

Trust Formed Veterans

"Whereas of the many who nobly sacrificed and who have been by the war service so that they can no longer take up the burden of peace."

In anticipation of the coming of peace and the return of the veterans, the Illinois Veterans' Association has organized a trust fund which will be used to help the veterans who are in need of financial aid.

BONUS MONEY NOT NEEDED BY PAYEE TO AID CHARITY

Trust Formed to Receive Veterans' Gifts.

"Whereas of those who so served many have nobly died, leaving some orphans and children fatherless, while others have by reason of their unselfish service become so incapacitated that they can no longer equally with others take up the burdens or enjoy the blessings of peace..."

In anticipation of the statewide bonus a group of prominent Chicagoans and downstate men this morning will launch the Illinois Veterans' Trust, an organization which is to "help those who need it most" with the bonuses of those who do not need or want them and of those who wish to put their bonuses where they will give the best return.

The quoted paragraph preceding the one just above explains in brief the purposes of the organization. The men who, among others, following an instant demand from people all over the state for such an organization have formed it are:

Milton J. Foreman, Charles G. Dawes, Abel Davis, A. A. Sprague, John A. Holabird, Noble B. Judah, Thomas R. Gowenlock, H. B. Hackett, John S. Miller, E. A. Cudahy Jr., J. M. Patterson, Marshall Field, J. M. Dickenson Jr., Charles S. Dorey, Dr. Frank Phillips, Dr. Dean Lewis, all of Chicago; George G. Seamen of Taylor, Bradford Moore of Monticello, and Walter A. Rosenfield of Rock Island.

Noble B. Judah is to act as temporary secretary of the organization and will receive all inquiries and communications at his office, 124 South La Salle street.

To Whom It Will Appeal.

There are a number of classes of men, it is pointed out, to whom such an organization will appeal. First, which has been demonstrated by the instant demand for it. Among these are those who have thought no bonus should be paid, those who have felt that financially they do not need the bonus, those who do not need all of it, those who believe that the bonus should be paid only to the sick and wounded, and those who wish to donate to a worthy cause where the funds are properly safeguarded.

The plan of the Illinois Veterans' Trust is to have all monies turned over to the organization put into a trust fund which is to be invested at the best rate of interest, the income to be devoted to helping the cases of worthy and needy Illinois veterans or families of veterans. Thus, the organizers point out, there will be a steady and regular income with which the help may be given.

The appeal of the trust for funds is to those only who are willing to donate their bonus from the state to the fund to assist the disabled and their families and the families of those who died.

Demand for Such Service.

There is no attempt, the trustees carefully point out, on the part of the trust to receive the donations of the bonus from those veterans who fought for it and who need it. Only those ex-service men who can afford it and are perfectly willing to do so are asked to contribute. In fact, the directors state, many ex-service men appear to be seeking an agency through which they may do just what the trust is formed to do.

Again the trustees themselves are a representative body of ex-service men who are acting in response to a statewide feeling among certain classes of ex-service men that such a disposition of the bonus should be made. Working out the full details of the plan with the trustees is the Chicago Title and Trust company, which under the trust agreement is a depository trustee with the trustees named, and in whose hands all monies will be.

DEMAND FUNDS BE APPROPRIATED FOR SCHOOL QUIZ

Citizens Insist on Aid for Brundage.

Following Attorney General Brundage's announcement that he would take charge of investigation of the school board and prosecutions growing out of it, the joint committee on school affairs yesterday made public demand upon the board of county commissioners, the city council, and the board of education for appropriation of a fund adequate for the probe.

This was in line with the view expressed by the attorney general that the investigation should be financed by public bodies. Mr. Brundage declined offers of private subscription of the fund, which he says should be $150,000.

The joint committee's demand was made in a resolution made public by Max Loeb, chairman, which calls upon the board of education and the city council to appropriate funds for auditing the books of the board, and petitions the county commissioners "to appropriate and make available at the earliest possible moment all funds necessary for a complete investigation of the school situation and the prosecution of persons already indicted and those who may hereafter be indicted."

Representatives of fifteen organizations in the joint committee, meeting last Thursday in the Chicago Woman's club, authorized the executive committee to prepare the resolution and the intervening time was devoted to investigation of points emphasized. Organizations represented are: Chicago Woman's club, Woman's City club, Chicago Woman's aid, City Club of Chicago, Chicago Church federation, Chicago Council of Jewish Women, Illinois League of Women Voters, North End club, West End Woman's club, Chicago Urban league, Johannish lodge, Oakland Business Men's association, women's department of the Chicago Church federation, public officers committee of the Union League club, and Englewood Woman's club.

Bitter Case to Go Over.

Attorney Thomas J. Symmes, who, with Assistant State's Attorney George E. Gorman, will conduct the prosecution of William A. Bither, former attorney for the school board, and Louis Piquet, city prosecutor, charged with graft in school board funds, announced yesterday that the state has consented to continue the cases for a few days.

MOSCOW, Nov. 19.—(By Tribune Wireles.)—At 4 o'clock today Rasaf Pasha notified Abdul Medjid Effendi that he had been elected caliph of the Mohammedan world and the formal inauguration would be held tomorrow. His explanation was that he had not been elected caliph, but solely caliph without temporal power.

The new caliph declared his acceptance, stating that he was not usurping his uncle's job, as the latter had proven a traitor to his nation and religion and lost the respect of the dynastic family and all Moslems and henceforth was forbidden to enter Turkey.

Has Only One Wife.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—Abdul Medjid received 148 votes for caliph out of a total of 163 votes in the Turkish nationalist assembly at Ankara.

Abdul is the son of Sultan Abdul Aziz and is 64 years of age. He is described as learned in literature, a patron of the arts, an accomplished painter and a composer of music. He has been closely identified with the nationalist movement.

Unlike most Turks he has only one wife and lives modestly. He married a daughter and a son, the latter married to a daughter of Mohammed VI, the deposed sultan.

Charge Use of Force.

Policemen of the Gary force are the men who are alleged to have done the beating. Following their arrest, Popovitch and Petrowski were taken to the Gary police station, where they were questioned. When they denied any part in the wrecking they were strapped to a cell door and whipped with a piece of rubber hose, they charge.

After making the confessions the two men, along with Charles Uesla, 3244 Rockwell street, and Albino Alessio, 2046 Washington boulevard, were placed in the Crown Point jail to await the action of the grand jury. Two weeks ago the grand jury voted an indictment against Uesla, but returned "no bills" against the other three. They were released.

Both Claim Injury.

Since returning home Petrowski has been confined in bed and is to be operated on at a local hospital for a rupture, received, he said, as the result of the handling of the police gave him. Popovitch is also in a bad condition physically, he said.

The police learned that the shooting was the culmination of a series of arguments between the couple in the last few weeks. On several occasions Mrs. Tachka has been the victim of beatings at the hands of her husband, it was said.

FATE OF SUBSIDY BILL IN DOUBT ON EVE OF SESSION

BY GRAFTON WILCOX.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—[Special.]—The Sixty-seventh congress convenes in special session tomorrow, called by President Harding for the purpose of considering ship subsidy legislation which he believes is vital to the upbuilding of an American merchant marine.

Although there will be a few other legislative matters discussed before March 4, when the Sixty-seventh congress comes to an end, it is practically certain that ship subsidy and the necessary government appropriation bills will occupy most of the special session and the regular session which follows. Formidable opposition has developed to the ship subsidy bill in both parties, opposition so determined that the fate of the measure is in doubt. There are Republican leaders who insist that the bill cannot be passed, but administration heads are very hopeful that they will be able to overcome all such objections.

Recent Elections an Obstacle.
Weakening of the Republican organization as a result of the recent elections is one reason for uncertainty as to the outcome of the administration's drive for the ship subsidy enactment. In addition, the organized Democratic opposition and the determination of the so-called progressive-radical group within the Republican ranks to upset the administration legislative program make it clear that the President's course is not to be a smooth one.

Issuance of a call yesterday by Senator La Follette (Wis.) for a conference of progressive senators and representatives of both parties on Dec. 1 for the avowed purpose of forming a compact organization to defeat the ship subsidy bill, as well as other measures proposed by the administration, gave an inkling of the kind of fight that is in prospect.

Through the use of the filibuster the progressive bloc unquestionably has it within its power to prevent final action before the March 4 adjournment. Sponsors for the bill concede that if it is not enacted into law at the present session there is no chance whatever for its favorable consideration in the following session, when the senators and representatives just elected take office.

Senator Capper Leads Fight.
That the agricultural forces in congress cannot be counted upon to support the subsidy bill to any extent is indicated by the attitude of Senator Capper (Kan.), leader of the senate farm bloc, who says he will vote against the bill as a dangerous precedent to subsidize any industry.

Sufficient votes to insure the passage of the subsidy bill are claimed in the house, but a number of far-reaching amendments are deemed inevitable. One provision of the bill, against which some influential Republican leaders in the house will be found lined up, is that which gives shippers a tax deduction equal to 5 per cent of the amount of money which they expend in ocean freight charges on goods carried in American vessels.

The ship subsidy bill probably will reach the senate before the middle of December. The senate commerce committee is likely to require at least a week in consideration. It is a certainty that the senate will not reach a final vote on the bill before the latter part of January, or possibly not until February.

It is planned to reintroduce the bill in the house early in the week and report it back before Wednesday. The house will vote on the bill on Nov. 23.

Paternalism Is and Conder

BY ARTHUR SEAR

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—[Special.]—Those who are growth of paternalism picture the country in a monster of frightful magnitude, which is devouring the individual liberty and the pursuit of the federal bureaucracy is growing topheavy with up of departments, bureaus, missions, while the people support the operations of inquisitors into private life.

BUREAUCRACY'S VIRTUES, EVILS ARE COMPARED

Paternalism Is Upheld and Condemned.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Those who are alarmed by the growth of paternalism in government picture the country in the grasp of a monster of frightful mien called bureaucracy, which is remorselessly devouring the individual's right to liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

The federal bureaucracy, they say, is growing topheavy with the piling up of departments, bureaus, and commissions, while the people groan beneath the added burden of taxation to support the operations of a myriad of ineffectual private affairs.

No Longer a Baby Nation.

They are answered with contentions that the federal bureaucracy is no more extensive than is justified by the size of the nation and that the burden of taxes is less than it would be if the functions of the federal government assumed in the last generation were exercised by forty-eight states. If, they conclude, the continued centralization of government at Washington and the widening participation of the federal government in welfare activities hitherto confined to the states—if this be paternalism, it is a beneficent paternalism wrought by the people themselves through their representatives in congress as the most effective means of remedying evils and improving the conditions of existence.

Population Versus Jobholders.

The extent and growth of the federal bureaucracy, compared with population, is shown by the following tabulation:

Year	Population	Employees
1871	39,555,000	53,000
1881	51,216,000	107,000
1891	64,281,124	168,000
1901	77,747,402	256,000
1911	92,082,189	370,000
1921	106,418,175	572,000
1922	106,450,000	568,853

Before the war the normal number of government employees throughout the country was not far from 400,000. In 1916 it was 437,057, while on Armistice day, 1918, the total was 517,760. Just think of it, exclaim the anti-centralizationists, for every 190 men, women and children in the country today there is a federal official or employee in addition to all the state, county and municipal officials and employees.

Number Doubles in Twenty Years.

They point to the doubling of the number of federal employees in the last twenty years as an indication of the tremendous acceleration in the growth of paternalism in that time.

For the extension of federal functions into the domain of state government Senator Stanley (Ky.) blames the Republican party, "born in the throes of sectional hate and fratricidal strife, poisoned in its vitals by the virus of federalism."

Casting his eye over the expansion of federal functions and activities, accomplished, in process of accomplishment and proposed, Mr. Stanley says: "From the crushing weight and the inordinate expense of this abominable system of endless and irresistible federal interference there is no escape. Great states are to be stripped of all actual control over their penal, eleemosynary and educational institutions. The citizen is to be left helpless and exposed to the prying interference and vexatious intermeddling of the delator and the spy, even in his most intimate and domestic relations.

Marital Relations Supervised.

"Weddings are to be supervised by a hygienic expert and marital rights determined by some eugenic fool. Babies are to be born by federal aid and suckled under federal supervision."

"You cannot milk a cow without a federal inspector at your heels. The factory, the mill, the counting house, the office, and the home literally swarm with a horde of petty and pestiferous representatives of this paternalistic regime."

"Every business man finds an inspector at his elbow, a federal sleuth at his heels; houses are searched, homes outraged and the public highways dappled in the blood of unoffending citizens by a multitude of agents and inspectors, ignorant of and indifferent to the law of the land and the rights of the citizen."

What It Means in Coin.

"During the last ten years the appalling cost of a hundred different commissions, boards and bureaus, employing an innumerable army of deputies, inspectors, supervisors, spies and political parasites, has actually exceeded by 400 per cent the total cost of the federal government for the first half century of its existence."

"This insatiable lust for legislative power daily begets new boards and bureaus. The appetite for attending to other people's business grows by what it feeds on and their devastating cost increases by leaps and bounds."

According to Henry Ford's Dearborn Independent there are in federal and local governments 15,000,000 officials and employees and only 30,000,000 producers. If that is the case, there is an office holder, a tax eater, on the back of every two tax producers in the United States.

"That situation crushed France and produced the French revolution. That same bureaucracy was the bane and damnation of Germany, and that same condition will bankrupt and enslave this country."

In contrast with this view is that of Representative Tower (Ia.), an outstanding advocate of the expansion of the federal government's welfare activities.

"Every extension of governmental activity to cure abuses or to relieve untoward conditions has been met with the objection that it is an invasion of the police powers and the reserved rights of the states," he said.

Says Court O. K.'s Moves.

"But congress has used its judgment in most cases with careful observance of constitutional limitations and in nearly all cases the legislation has been sustained by the Supreme court. If the objections urged against legislation of this character were sustained, and acts of a similar nature were stricken from the statutes, a great volume of beneficent law would be lost."

In this connection Mr. Tower instanced the farm loan board, the public health service, the reclamation service, bureau of mines, the bureau of education, the whole department of agriculture, and the department of labor, the federal trade commission, and the shipping board.

"If the maternity and other welfare acts are unconstitutional," he said, "then these acts are unconstitutional. None of them is unconstitutional. It is not to control the states, but to aid and encourage them and to stimulate them to activity, that welfare legislation is sought and passed."

As to the cost of government, the detailed survey for 1920, made by the late Dr. Edward B. Ross of the bureau of standards, shows that the civil activities of the government cost $365,550,410, or 6.4 per cent of the total government expenditure of that year.

a per capita cost based on the population of the country on June 30, 1920 (104,880,000), of $3.45. According to Dr. Ross, 3.3 per cent, or $2.11 per capita, went for primary governmental functions; 1 per cent, or 54 cents per capita, for research and education; and 2.24 per cent, or 30 cents per capita, for public works.

"These civil expenses certainly do not seem unreasonable," he commented. "Indeed, they are surprisingly small when we consider the wide range of federal governmental activities and the high costs of conducting business of all kinds in 1920."

As Compared to Cities.

"The net cost payable from taxation of municipal government in New York, Chicago, and Philadelphia, in 1918, was $39.23 per capita. In 1920 it was considerably more, probably not less than ten times the per capita cost of the civil side of the federal government as defined above."

Another article of this series by Mr. Henning will appear in the near future.

INSISTS LLOYD WILL SURRENDER NEXT THURSDAY

Attorneys for William Brock Lloyd, wealthy radical wanted on a mandate of the Illinois Supreme court, which sends him to the penitentiary for from one to five years for violation of the state sedition law, yesterday corroborated Mr. Lloyd's statement of Saturday night that he will give himself up "to the proper authorities" on or before next Thursday evening.

"That's about right," said Attorney William A. Cunnea. "I have not seen Mr. Lloyd nor been in communication with him since this matter has come up, but I know that he has matters which it would take him at least a week, perhaps ten days, to straighten out, before he could go to the penitentiary feeling assured that everything was all right."

Eighteen men and women were arrested early yesterday morning in a restaurant at 746 Taylor street, it was alleged by detectives from the Maxwell street station, for voicing protests against the conviction and penitentiary sentence of Mr. Lloyd.

PRETTY SERVANT GONE; ALSO $4,000 VALUABLES

Summerville police are searching for a pretty 20 year old girl with bobbed hair who gave her name as Margaret Wilson, and who is alleged to have stolen $4,000 worth of jewelry and clothing from the home of Meyer Katz, 1424 Elmdale avenue, where she was employed as a domestic, late Saturday night. The girl applied for a position several weeks ago, it was said, and her services were entirely satisfactory to Mrs. Katz. When the latter returned home from a theater late Saturday night she discovered that the young woman was missing. So were the jewelry and clothes.

ROMANCE BROKEN, NURSE ATTEMPTS TO END HER LIFE

Mrs. Hazel Patricia McDonald, 21 years old and attractive, attempted vainly early yesterday for the second time to end her life because of a shattered romance. Despite the fact that she had taken six bichloride of mercury tablets, heroic treatment at Lake View hospital, where a year ago she had been admitted as a student nurse, offset effects of the poison and she was discharged last night. She had been found suffering on the street. Mrs. McDonald, who is employed as a manicurist, refused to talk of her case, but Mrs. Irene Patterson of 889 Galt avenue, with whom she makes her home, told of her unfortunate love affair.

ASK INDICTMENTS TODAY IN KLIMEK POISONING CASES

Police Release Sister of Mrs. Koulik.

The "Mrs. Bluebeards" poison mystery will be submitted to the grand jury today, with a request from the state's attorney's office for five indictments—three charging murder against Mrs. Tillie Klimek, 1458 Tail place; one charging murder against her cousin, Mrs. Nellie Sterner-Koulik, 1413 Wade street, and a fifth jointly charging them with attempt to murder with poison.

Today's action by the grand jury will be the climax of an investigation of an alleged wholesale poison plot, in which authorities claim to have discovered twenty victims of arsenic administered in food, fourteen of whom are dead.

Arsenic in Four Bodies.

Assistant State's Attorney William F. McLaughlin will present the case to the grand jury. He said last night he expected to conclude it in an hour. His principal witness will be Dr. William D. McNally, who will testify that he found poison in the bodies of four husbands of the two women, recently exhumed. Witnesses to testify to the collection of life insurance by the women also will be called.

"That virtually completes the case," said the prosecutor, "and it probably will be strong enough eventually to call for the death penalty."

He will ask for true bills formally accusing Mrs. Klimek of the murder of the following: Her first husband, Joseph Klimek, who died Jan. 12, 1914; Joseph Ruskowski, her second husband, married Feb. 17, 1914, died three months later; Frank Kupczyk, third husband, died April 25, 1921, eleven months after marriage.

Case Against Mrs. Koulik.

Mrs. Koulik, according to the plan of Mr. McLaughlin, will be charged with the murder of her first husband, Wojtek Sterner, who died in 1915.

Joint indictment will be asked in the case of Joseph Klimek, present husband of Mrs. Klimek, who is said to be dying of arsenic poisoning in the West Side hospital.

Investigation of the deaths of relatives of the women will be continued, regardless of the action taken today by the grand jury. Other bodies will be exhumed, Mr. McLaughlin stated, including those of three children—Dorothy Spers, 3 year old granddaughter of Mrs. Klimek; Sophia and Benjamin Sterner, children of Mrs. Koulik.

Two Women Released.
Mrs. Cornelia Koslowski, 1410 West Division street, sister of Mrs. Koulik and cousin of Mrs. Klimek, and her daughter, Mrs. Nicholas Micke, 2935 West Superior street, who were taken into custody Saturday, upon discovery that the younger woman's husband was suffering from what appeared to be poison, were the object yesterday of continued investigation under the di-

MR. AND MRS. M. D. WALKER.

Asserting they never had a quarrel during the fifty years of their married life, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Walker, 415 North Cuyler avenue, Oak Park, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary tomorrow with a dinner and reception at the Oak Park Arms hotel.

For forty years the couple have lived in Chicago and vicinity, the last ten of which have been spent in Oak Park. Mrs. Walker, who is 71 years old, was born on a farm near Jefferson, Ill., and Mr. Walker, a native of Scotland, came to this country at the age of 21. Mr. Walker has retired from business as a contractor.

They have three sons—George Walker of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Arthur Walker of Morton Park, and Emory Walker of Austin—all of whom are expected at the celebration.

Mrs. Micke was released soon after her arrest and her mother was liberated a short time later.

While making his rounds early Sunday morning, a watchman for the American Express company at 1111 West 35th street, discovered that a rear door of the warehouse had been jimmied. Investigation showed that more than $3,000 worth of merchandise had been stolen. Lieut. Dennis Conway and Sergt. Thomas Carlisle of the Deering street police, found that a wagon had been hitched up to the door. The policemen followed the tracks. They led out of the yard and east in 35th street. At Emerald avenue the trail turned south, then up over the curb and into a barn. Inside they found the wagon loaded with the goods. Searching the place, they discovered Frank Solomon, 925 West 57th street, hiding in the hay loft. Solomon was handcuffed to a wheel of the wagon while the police waited. An hour later Ed Doherty and his brother Dan, living at 745 Root street, came in. They were arrested.

GEN. FENG'S ARMY SEIZES PEKING; CABINET FALLS

Finance Minister Held on $350,000 Charge.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
PEKING, Nov. 18, 11 p. m.—[Delayed by censor.]—Peking is in the throes of a new coup d'état tonight following the arrest of Finance Minister Lo Wen Kan on a bribery charge. Lo refused bail offered by Premier Wang Chung Hui and is remaining in jail. The cabinet has suddenly been removed on orders of President Li Yuan Hung, while Liang Yu-Hsiang's Christian troops will enter Peking tonight to enforce virtual martial law. Dr. W. W. Yen will assume the premiership, with Dr. Chenting T. Wang, the present head of the Shantung redemption commission, and foreign minister, and Chang Tao Seng as minister of justice. The other members will be retained excepting the finance minister, which office will be unfilled.

Alleged Bribe of $350,000.

Minister Lo is accused of accepting a bribe of $350,000 (about $352,000) in connection with an effort to revive a $4,000,000 (about $3,950,000) loan which had been authorized before the world war through German capitalists for steamship lines. About $1,000,000 (about $980,000) had been paid over when China entered the war, when the loan lapsed.

On Oct. 4 the cabinet took up the question of this loan, wherein the finance minister now is accused of accepting the bribe, it being alleged that the check passed through the hands of Louis and Australia. Since Lo is Gen. Wu Pei Fu's man, who likewise dominates the cabinet, also having denounced Tiao Jui during the spring fighting, even though he is a brother of Tiao Kun, the arrest of Lo has precipitated a cabinet crisis.

Details of Arrest.

As far as can be learned tonight the Tientsin group has convinced President Li Yuan Hung of Lo's guilt and the cabinet's knowledge thereof, whereupon the president authorized the arrest when the speakers of both houses of parliament endorsed the charges made by the Tientsin group. Premier Wang is inaccessible tonight, as are all the others, each having sought secret hiding places, not knowing that the coup is being executed.

During the dramatic entry of Gen. Yu's troops to Peking explains his transfer here. Dr. Yen, Dr. Chenting Wang and Gen. Feng, all Christians, are adding to the significance of the crisis, creating fear that a charge of foreign domination will be raised by the ousted party. The situation is so chaotic tonight that it is impossible properly to estimate the situation.

Details of Arrest.

PEKING, Nov. 19.—[By the Associated Press.]—Premier Wang Chung Hui and Foreign Minister Wellington Koo both went to police headquarters and offered their personal guarantees for the accused finance minister's appearance when needed, but these were refused and Lo was held behind the bars. President Li is said to have telegraphed the police to come and get the warrant for Lo's arrest. Hwang Tien, director of the treasury department, who was with Lo when the latter ter was arrested, also was taken to police headquarters, but whether he is actually under arrest is not definitely known.

The president, it is said, was induced to procure Lo's arrest by Wu Ching-Liang, speaker of the house of representatives, and Chang Po-Lieh, vice speaker, who produced documents, some of them alleged to have been forged, purporting to implicate Lo as party to the receipt of $100,000 in connection with the loan flotation.

MARRIED MAN, 37, IS ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF GIRL, 9

Joseph Bicket, 37 years old, married and the father of two children, living at 1848 Lincoln avenue, was arrested early this morning on charges made by Ruth Goetz, 9 years old, who lives on the first floor at the Lincoln avenue address. Bicket was taken to the American hospital, where the child is in a serious condition, and identified. He later confessed, Lieut. Thomas Duffy, who made the arrest, said.

The little girl said Bicket gave her candy to get her to go to his apartment when his family was away from home.

MEXICO FASCISTI NUMBER 300,000

WIDOW IS KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE DRIVEN BY BOY, 15

Mrs. Jennie Jensen, a widow, 558 Provident avenue, Winnetka, was struck and fatally injured last night by an automobile driven by Dan Schilling Jr., 15 years old, of 159 Bertling avenue, Winnetka. The boy and his father, who was with him in the car, picked up the woman and took her to the Evanston hospital, where she died a short time later. Young Schilling was questioned by the police but permitted to go when it was shown he was not at fault. Witnesses said Mrs. Jensen was carrying an umbrella, which prevented her seeing the automobile and she walked directly in front of it.

RECORD SALES PROVE UNEQUALLED VALUE

THE SELZ $SIX

What other shoe ever became the biggest single seller of its kind in just one year?

This amazing record proves equally surprising value. The Selz $Six is a shoe of such style and quality no man need ask for more. Its bargain price was deliberately set to make record breaking sales. Thus the reduced profit is made up by the remarkable sales volume.

The Selz $Six brings you rare opportunity. Seize it. Let us fit you.

The Finest Clothes in the World Sold at a Moderate Profit

Five years ago the volume of our shirt business was unsatisfactory.

We realized that to increase it meant a cutting of profit; we also realized if we could multiply the volume by three without otherwise increasing our overhead, that we could afford to sell shirts at less profit.

We acted according to our convictions—the result was we not only multiplied the business by three, but we multiplied it by seven-and-a-half times, so that CAPPER & CAPPER today, with their six stores, are probably the largest distributors of fine shirts in America—certainly the largest in the West.

The success of this undertaking prompted us to apply the same principles to our Clothing Department.

We propose to increase our Clothing Department by at least three times the present volume, and we are confident we can do it.

We hope to repeat our shirt experience by increasing it seven-and-a-half times.

OUR CLOTHES ARE RECOGNIZED AS THE FINEST CLOTHES IN CHICAGO; they will always be that.

Our new buyers, full of the spirit that actuates us, are well qualified to help us realize our ambition.

WHAT A STATE!

Small voted $700,000 of the appropriations for the attorney general's office. That nearly put the state out of business as a prosecutor. Then Mr.
Small was discovered to be one of the citizens who might not want the state to be in business as a prosecutor. Evidence came to light requiring his indictment for embezzlement. An expensive trial followed, resulting in a verdict of not guilty from a jury for some of whose members public employment since has been found. Public employment also was found for an editor who had been active in trying the case favorably out of court.

Small's good fortune with the jury did not end the required activities of the attorney general in his case. There is still the necessity of trying the civil case for recovery from Small of the money the Lake county jury said he did not embezzle beyond a reasonable doubt.

Then Herrin, in Williamson county, turned man killer and did some murder wholesale which would have been approved by the soviet chieftain. Herrin asked the state what it thought it was going to do about it and for a while the state didn't know what to answer.

Local justice was up a tree and the state prosecutor was out of funds. Citizens who thought that there ought to be at least a trial after some twenty men had been butchered & a Rumsse raised the money to enable Mr. Brundage to proceed with the forms of law in Williamson county.

Rock Island broke out with a milder case of general murder, growing out of uncontrolled vice conditions, and again the attorney general with his flat pocketbook was asked to intervene.

The Chicago school board got so raw that it scared even Thompson. A special grand jury, members of which were threatened—one had the woman game tried on him—voted indictments.
Every other day some influence was found at to protect the school looters. The jury had several times to appeal to the court to rid it of obstructions which were preventing the discovery of the truth.

The state's attorney of Cook county passes the prosecution of the indicted men to the attorney general, who is, as he is in the Herrin case, without funds. He needs $150,000 of that $700,000 which Small took away from his office if he is to prosecute the appointees of Small's city friend, Thompson, and the others accused.

There is plenty of easy money in Chicago and Illinois and it can be had under the most favorable conditions. The case of our real estate and building experts shows that it is possible to add several million dollars to an income and not even pay an income tax on it. But justice is broke.

In civil life citizens have subscribed to a large fund intended to enable a citizen to build a home or an office building without having the workers killed or the building blown up.

Justice is blind and broke. What it needs is a tag day.

WHO SHOULD PAY SOUTH WATER STREET BILL?

Representatives of owners of property worth more than $100,000,000 are protesting vehemently against Michael J. Faherty's edict that the cost of the proposed South Water street improvements should be met entirely by special assessments on nearby property. They want the city to pay 50 per cent of the cost of the improvements. There is a good deal of justice in their arguments, although 50 per cent is too much for the public benefit; 20 per cent would be more equitable.

The fact is, we believe, that almost any assessment which might be levied upon abutting property on South Water street, or along adjacent streets into the heart of the loop, would be well compensated by the improvements. The value of the property directly affected should quickly show such gains as to more than offset the costs. But that is not the only point involved. There is a question of justice and policy.

By widening, double-decking, and boulevarding
South Water street to its junction with River street, and River street to the boulevard, great benefit will accrue not only to abutting property but to all property northward along the boulevard, at least as far as Chicago avenue. To a slightly lesser extent it will benefit property to the west, which will be put into much closer contact with the near north side. To a still smaller extent, but still appreciable, it will benefit the entire city of Chicago. What resident of Ravenswood or Rogers Park, or even of Hyde Park if business or pleasure calls him north, has not benefited by the boulevard link improvement? It is not necessary to own property on the improvement to get some advantage from it. Therefore it is no more than just that the city as a whole should help defray the expenses of the improvement. The proportion of such expense which should be levied against the city and the proportion to be paid by the property owners immediately benefiting is a matter for careful study.

That conclusion applies, however, largely to the route of improvement from the boulevard through River street and thence westward along South Water street. The proposed extension of the improvement of South Water street beyond its junction with River street directly east to the boulevard is another matter. The chief value of that phase of the improvement would be to the abutting property owners. That street would not be a generally used through traffic street. Its value to the city as a whole would be negligible. Therefore the city as a whole should not be called upon to pay any great proportion of the expense. The owners will get enough out of it to more than reimburse themselves for the costs. That should be enough for them. The matter of city benefit is reduced to a minimum in their case.

BOSS MCBRIDE

Another letter from Scott McBride, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, is printed in the Voice of the People today. In our opinion it reveals a mind so obsessed by one cause as to be closed to the perception of truth and, consequently, incapable of stating it. McBride is a political boss and exercises a control which determines many issues in Illinois. We condemn him on his own statements and on his own acts.

He does not see that he makes the case against himself and against the leadership of the Anti-Saloon league, which is supported by the money of good citizens. That money is used against them when it is used to support the Small-Thompson combination in control of the legislature. The Anti-Saloon league did the greatest damage any organization could do the state when it gave votes to the Small-Thompson candidate for speaker and elected him.

Boss McBride says that no issue in the state concerns him or his associates except prohibition. Then he would sell out to any gang? He would establish give votes to any Tweed? He would establish any regime of looting and treachery to the public to serve the one cause in which he is interested?
He upholds that cause as one of necessary public morality. No cause of public morality can work with enemies of public welfare, promote their schemes, and help them gain their objects and assert itself to be a factor for good in the state.

Boss McBride and his associates in the dry leadership are paid by citizens who think that public morals and the wellbeing of the community demand prohibition. It would be strange if such people were indifferent to all factors in the corruption of government and the injury of the state. Yet Boss McBride takes their money and uses it to hurt the cause of good government. He issues orders to legislators who fear him. He at once admits the truth of the charge and denies it.

He is expected to oppose the election of a wet speaker, but if it is necessary for the dry leadership to make disgraceful political compromises on far more important issues it is an evil influence.
Just such public principles as Boss McBride acknowledges make the Anti-Saloon league under his leadership just as dangerous to general public good as the Small-Thompson combination with which he is willing to associate himself to gain his purposes. It makes the money subscribed to his fund just as dangerous as the money Small and Thompson squeeze out of taxpayers and public employes to use in elections.

The truth is not in McBride when he denies that he does things hurtful to public morality and admits the facts which prove he does. The truth is not in him any more than it was in the statement of Wheeler in Washington that only $2,500 was spent in the campaign for dry congressmen.

When he says that he could not make a choice between such a dry as Tice and such a dry as Dahlberg he proves that his influence in the legislature is damaging to the public. The people whose money supports him, gives him power, and pays his salary should know that he works against them and will do so in the organization of the next legislature. He has made a truce with the devil and says it is a holy work.

Nothing better can be expected of a man who writes a letter of abuse to THE TRIBUNE and then complains that it was printed in an inconspicuous and unnoticed part of the paper. THE TRIBUNE circulated McBride's abuse of it at its own expense.
It gave it publication in the Voice of the People department, which it knows to be one of the most widely read departments of the newspaper, as he himself knows.

There is no truth in a man who makes a point would assert what he knows to be untrue. THE TRIBUNE does not expect McBride to send this criticism of his political morality to the subscribers who support him. He has ways of reaching them, but he will not send this.

He knows precisely what THE TRIBUNE meant when it said it was not trying to control the organization of the legislature, and he knows that its influence is constantly used to promote such legislative organization and such legislation as will benefit the state.

Under Boss McBride the Anti-Saloon league is a force for evil in this state.

Editorial of the Day

TWO STARTLING STATEMENTS.
(Gary, Ind., Post.)

According to our news association's report of Judge
Gary's testimony before the federal trade commission, the judge made two startling statements. He said:
1. That "if you take away the base price there will be no such producing centers as Duluth, Chicago, Gary, or Birmingham."
2. That Pittsburgh could probably produce steel at a lower cost today than Gary.

If Judge Gary was correctly quoted his remarks ought to be amplified so that Gary people will know where they stand. It has been the understanding of every one that the destruction of the Pittsburgh base price would make it impossible for Pittsburgh steel mills to compete with those in this district. Such a situation would lead to the building of new mills here in order to take care of this central western trade.

But now we are told that if the base price is ruled out it will injure Gary as a steel center. Does Judge Gary really intend this statement to be taken at its face value, or has it been garbled in translation?
If no error was made, then what is the meaning of these diametrically opposing beliefs?

It may be that this question of a base price is very complicated, but it ought to be possible to make it so plain that a few outsiders could understand it. The general public believes the exact opposite of Judge Gary's statement. If the public is in error it ought to be set right by some one who can provide the proper argument.

We have always believed steel could be produced more economically in Gary than elsewhere, because Judge Gary said so. He told an audience in Duluth that the mills here could hold at least 15 per cent more cheaply than Pittsburgh.

Possibly something has happened since then to give Pittsburgh the edge. If it has the public ought to be informed. People have invested and are investing their money in Gary because of their faith in the statements about conditions here made by Judge Gary. If they are following a "bum steer" they should be told.

REVOLT IS ON THE MARCH.
Revolt is obviously on an ebb tide. The requiem of free verse has been sung by erstwhile high priests of free verse. The Freudian complexes are passing out. The new prose style, having reached its climax in Ben Hecht and Walter Frank, is giving way before the older syntax of the English language as embodied in Thackeray, Kipling, and Thomas Hardy.

Revolt is going out. The long skirt is coming in—Misses Strunk in Mississippi Journal.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

How to Line, let the quips fall where they may.

WAY OF A MAID WITH A MAN.

Daughter of Eve, daughter of Eve,
Why do you linger and languish and grieve?
Beauty is young, even beauty to weave Chains for the Son of the Morning.

Nay, there is some one who follows me not,
Gone for good from this wearisome spot,
Some one who saw me and turned and forgot,
Wherefore I weep in the morning.

Daughter of Eve, daughter of Eve.

Lo, he returns to you, he that would leave,
See how he comes with his heart on his sleeve,
Cleaving the mists of the morning.

Nay, I had dreamed 'twas his pleasure and plot
To force me to follow him—why did he not—
With Eden behind us and Eden forgot,
'Into the gold of the morning!'

THE KING OF THE BLACK ISLES.

THE proposed new constitution has changed that paragraph of the old constitution which read, "the patriotism and valor of Illinois," to "the patriotism and valor of the men of Illinois." Quite right!
In the grim days of the civil war, did the state of Illinois buckle on a sword or shoulder a gun and march with glory? It did not. But the men of Illinois did. Then let it so be stated.

AND in the great world's war, did the state of Illinois put on a suit of khaki and hurry to the trenches? It did not. The state of Illinois stayed right where it had always been, but the men of Illinois went. Then why should we deceive people by pretending that the state of Illinois got up and went over to France?

LET a misinformed people sing "Britannia, rule the waves," and let poets in our own land sound forth, "Columbia, the gem of the ocean," and let Daniel Webster say, in speaking of Massachusetts,
"There she is! Behold her, and judge for yourselves." But we will have none of that nonsense in Illinois. Sharpen the razor and let's split the next hair.

RESURFACING SIXTH STREET.
Chicago, Nov. 19.—(To the People.)—Some few months ago the vehicle tax repair department broke up the pavement on 54th place between Halsted and Morgan streets (which was not in first class condition, but would have lasted indefinitely with occasional repaving), and were to put on a composition of stone and tar, with a layer of finer stone on top; but some city officials insisted upon the street being asphalted and the work was completed and the first layer—a stone and tar composition—was then laid without the asphalt covering. The consequence is that the stone-tar composition is crumbling and we are property owners who pay the tax. Our queries have resulted in evasive replies and we are wondering if you would investigate and publish the real reason.

FIFTY-FOURTH PLACE, with several other streets in this neighborhood, is in the deplorable condition of the city. The destruction of our vehicle tax funds. However, 54th place will be one of the first streets to receive attention when vehicle tax activities are resumed next spring.

RENEW LEASE.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—(To the Legal Friend of the People.)—In August of 1920 I rented a flat and signed a lease for one year, beginning Sept. 1. Sixty days before the year was up I asked the landlord for a new lease and he refused. He insisted that the rent would be the same,
and that he would so mark the old lease,
which he failed to do.

On Aug. 8, twenty-three days before the second year was up, he sent me word that the rent would be raised to $10.00 per month. On Sept. 1 I paid the advance and have been paying it every month since, but have never signed a new lease.

What I would like to know is, am I bound to pay the new rent to stay a whole year, or can I move whenever I take a notion?
J. J. P.

Where a tenant under a lease for a definite term holds over beyond the term, and the landlord accepts additional rent, these circumstances, in the absence of other circumstances showing a contrary intent on the part of the landlord, result in a renewal to the same terms.

MEMORY TESTS

1. Who was the author of the following lines, and where do they occur?
"Where is he—Whose game was empires and whose stakes were thrones, Whose table earth, whose dice were human bones?"
Byron in "The Age of Bronze" in summing up Napoleon's character.

2. Who ruled of France spent part of his period of exile in the United States? In what way did he differ from other kings of France? What was he called? Louis Philippe (1773-1850). He was called to the throne in 1830 as "King of the French," not as king of France. He fled from France in 1848. The citizen king.

3. Where is Abraham Lincoln buried? In Springfield, Ill.

4. Who was the only English pope?
Adrian IV. He was elected to the papacy in 1154. He was known as Nicholas Break-streak. His reign lasted about five years, until his death in 1159.

5. What President was fatally shot during the Pan-American Exposition at

GROWTH OF THE BODY (1).

First days ago I passed a mob had gathered. The attraction was a marvel clock—something new.
Any clock is a marvelous piece of machinery, but some, for instance, the strange clock, are so marvellous that for many years people have traveled long distances to see it. And then it occurred to me that the growth of the young human body was a going impetus so marvellous that the most marvellous clock was commonplace in comparison.

When the two microscopic elements,
the egg from the female and the exciting cell from the male, come together, the clock would for a growth program that is to be carried on for about twenty-five years. At just the right time this element will start growing; and at just the right time it will stop. The starting and stopping times of different elements will differ. At certain times certain elements will grow fast; at other times slow. The speed times of different elements differ. There is nothing like this variation in speed to be found in any clock invented by humans.

And now for a few pages from the unfoldings of the human body in response to this mysterious winding of the clock which we call the growth impulse. I take these illustrations from Montessor's "Pedagogic Anthropology."

The first five months of foetal life are given over largely to the formation of organs. Long before the fifth month most of the organs are organized in their final form. The fetus at the fifth month is 10 per cent of its length and weight at birth.

The last two months of foetal life are given over largely to growth in length and weight. For during this time 90 per cent of the weight and length at birth are acquired.

At birth a baby consists of a curled up trunk and a head. The arms and legs are appendages. When, in the course of a while, the trunk unfolds, the spinal column is found to be nearly straight.

As the years pass, four more very marked curves develop in the spinal column: A prominent one in the neck region; another in the chest region; a third in the lower back, and a fourth in the pelvis.

ENLARGED GLANDS.

Mrs. H. P. writes: "I have had kernels in my groins and also in my breasts for years. Had a grandfather and aunt die with tuberculosis. Would that cause the kernels in my body? Or can they be from other causes?"

REPLY.
I suggest that you have a physician find out why these glands are enlarged.
If you have had these enlargements for years they are not cancerous.
Among the conditions causing enlargement of the glands are syphilis, Hodgkin's disease, and tuberculosis.

TREATMENT FOR BOILS.

Mrs. D. S. writes: "Will you please tell me how to take care of a boil?"

REPLY.
Keep it clean. Keep the skin near it clean.
Do not let the clothing irritate it. When it is ready to be opened, have it lanced. After it does not press out the pus with violence.
Apply absorbent gauze or cotton for the pus to drain into. When boils develop, eliminate excess, discontinue bread, pastry, and cereals from the diet temporarily.

CANCER NOT CONTAGIOUS.

C. E. J. writes:
1. Is cancer contagious?
2. Does cancer of the stomach run in a family like say a person's father or mother had cancer of the stomach—are these hereditary? Is it likely to have it too?
3. Is there any cure for cancer of the stomach?
4. What is National Cancer week, Nov. 11 to 14, that is stamped on letters?"

REPLY.
1. No.
2. Somewhat.
3. Some cures are cured by operation. Early diagnosis is essential for cure.
4. It is so designated by the National Society for the Prevention of Cancer, with the approval of officials in order that people may come to understand the importance of the subject.

There is a rumor that open war has broken out between Mr. Frederick Douglass and Mr. John M. Langston, the latter of whom made application for the office of Solicitor General before the election returns were out. The rumor of the trouble was not true, but the salience of it may be inferred from the fact that Douglass Langston is a "an impetuous, disseminated, who is always anxious to push his brand forward," and Langston retorts that Douglass is "a conciliatory, unscrupulous fellow, who looks upon the advancement of any other colored man as a slight to himself." We are not quite sure but that there may be a color of truth in both these estimates; but we hope, for the sake of our country, that the two men will neither be so black as the other picture him.

MORACE GREELY

GRAY OLD "TIGER" STANDS, MUSING, AT TEDDY'S TOMB

New York, Nov. 19.—[By the Associated Press.]—George Clemenceau, war premier of France, motored to Oyster Bay today and laid a wreath on the grave of Theodore Roosevelt. The gray old Tiger, himself an apostle of preparedness, spoke no word as he stood before the grave of America's wisest of the big stick. But he was visibly moved. His eyes were moist in every detail of the little fenced-in enclosure that has become a shrine for many Americans.

Then he stood for a moment more with a far away look. Finally he turned away and trudged slowly down the winding path of Young's memorial cemetery, and motored to Roosevelt's home.

While others of the party rang the doorbell and waited for the door to be opened, Clemenceau turned abruptly and walked off down the broad veranda where Roosevelt used to sit and watch the sail boats on Oyster bay.

He walked all the way to the rear of the house, closely inspecting the long, low structure, stately, but simple, on the crest of Sagamore hill.

Greeted by Mrs. Roosevelt.

Archie Roosevelt, who served as a soldier in France, hurried to the veranda and conducted him into the house, where Mrs. Roosevelt greeted him. He spent some time in Roosevelt's famous trophy room. Then he motored back to the Manhattan restaurant.

dence of Charles Dana Gibson, which he is making his home during his five day stay here.

Clemenceau was accompanied on his visit to Oyster Bay by Col. E. M. House, director of his tour of the United States, Mrs. House, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson and Frank Polk, under secretary of state in the Wilson administration.

Visits Herman Kohlsaat.

Before he started down Long Island the Tiger visited Herman H. Kohlsaat, publisher, intimate friend of McKinley and grandfather of the famous "gold plank" of 1896, who is ill at the Biltmore.

Mr. Kohlsaat extended an invitation to Clemenceau to visit in Chicago at the home of Mr. Kohlsaat's daughter.

Mrs. Potter Palmer Jr., and the Tiger accepted.

Other events of the day included a brief meeting with Gen. Pershing at the Gibson home and a visit to the country estate of Otto H. Kahn at Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island.

There is only one event on Clemenceau's program for tomorrow, a reception at which he will meet a group of newspaper publishers and editors. What he will do with the rest of the day depends on his own whims.

FALLS DEAD IN SALOON. Sluggering out of the washroom of the saloon at 448 North Franklin street, unable to call for help, Guglielmo Granelli, 38 years old, 317 Orleans street, fell dead yesterday. Death was caused by a hemorrhage resulting from tuberculosis.

ANOTHER FREAR LETTER HITS AT TREASURY CHIEF

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—[Special.]—In another letter made public today to Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, Representative Frear (Wis.) charges that favoritism has existed in the internal revenue bureau in the adjustment of taxes.

Mr. Frear makes this charge, after reviewing arguments in support of his contention, that the treasury has been remiss in its duty in failing to assess a 25 per cent penalty against the Standard Oil company of New Jersey for the accumulation of an unduly large surplus from which a stock dividend was recently declared.

"The shifting of tax burdens under existing law can only be ascertained by full publicity and if you should now fail to enforce the law where the Skylock's tribute has been so clearly exacted by a public confession, how can your department's secret administration of other laws invite confidence," Mr. Frear says.

PROVES MEXICO ASKED HELP ON NEW OIL LAWS

Mexico City, Nov. 19.—[By the Associated Press.]—The statement authorized by Secretary of State Hughes, given out by the state department in Washington Saturday, to the effect that the secretary had been given to understand that the state department's comment on the proposed Mexican petroleum legislation would not be unwelcome, substantiates reports here that high Mexican officials several times have intimated to Mr. Summerlin, the American charge d'affaires, that suggestions by the United States government relative to the regulation of article 27 of the constitution would aid in the framing of a measure acceptable to all concerned. The text of the first note sent to Alberto J. Pani, the foreign secretary, by Mr. Summerlin, indicated that it was a personal communication. In it Mr. Summerlin said:

"Confirming our conversation of last night, I have pleasure in sending you a copy of the draft of the organic law, which I understand is the latest to be drawn up."

Met at Reception.

From an authoritative source it has been learned that "last night's conversation" took place at a reception attended by Senator Pani and Mr. Summerlin, during which casual reference was made to the proposed legislation. Mr. Summerlin is said to have told Senator Pani that he had a copy of the latest draft, which he would gladly furnish the Mexican foreign office, which had not yet received it.

Informal notes on Oct. 19 led to further unofficial exchanges between the secretary and the charge, which have now been interpreted by the Mexican government as "mediation," although there is reason to believe that the interchanges were due to an understanding that such suggestions would be appreciated. The informal nature of the communications is indicated by the fact that one of Mr. Summerlin's memoranda was delivered to Senator Pani by L. Lanier Winslow, first secretary of the American embassy, at a reception held at the Brazilian embassy.

Strengthens Oregon's Hand.

In official circles it is believed the Mexican government has materially strengthened its hold on congress by the publication of the communications. Factions which have been varying views on all legislation for the regulation of article 27 apparently have abandoned their desires in an effort to present a united front against what is described as undue and unwarranted interference by the United States in the internal affairs of Mexico. The belief was expressed today that the administration will be able to secure the adoption of whatever legislation it deems necessary, and that its bill regulating article 27 will be approved without difficulty.

Several days ago President Obregon called certain of the leaders in the chamber of deputies to his office and requested them to discard all measures they had drawn up and instead take up the regulation of article 27 as a whole. Later events indicated that the president's views were not shared by all the deputies and that the government might experience some difficulty in passing its measures.

The disclosures in the chamber of deputies Friday night that communications had passed recently between the foreign secretary and Mr. Summerlin have brought a vote of confidence to President Obregon and his policies. Much is being made here in this connection of alleged acts of violence committed against Mexicans in the United States. President Obregon has sent a telegram to Gov. Neff of Texas demanding protection for Mexican nationals in that state, and saying: "Just resentment is being felt among all classes in Mexico against recent happenings in Valasco."

FARMER, SON, AND WIFE ARE SLAIN IN TENNESSEE HOME

Pikeville, Tenn., Nov. 19.—That a band of six or seven unidentified men killed Jesse Rector, aged farmer, his son, York Rector, and the latter's wife at their home in the mountains near Melvins, Blount county, Friday night, is the opinion of Sheriff A. T. Goforth, who returned late last night from the scene of the crime.

The only evidence of any value secured by the sheriff was furnished by Tom Rector, son of Jesse Rector, and surviving member of the family. Young Rector, who is a typical mountaineer, possessed of unusual ability to follow a human trail, told the sheriff that his kinsmen were murdered by a party of six or seven men. He said that he had found their trail and followed the tracks through a field and into a road, where they mingled with other tracks.

"FOR ALL OF US IS THE NEW

SOCIALISTS TOSS MONKEY WRENCH IN CUNO CABINET

BY LARRY RUE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

BERLIN, Nov. 19. — (By Tribune Wireless.) — What is probably the death knell of Wilhelm Cuno's prospects of forming a cabinet was a unanimous decision of the executive committee of socialists today to refuse to participate in the new government if the people's party, led by Hugo Stinnes and other industrial leaders, is represented.

This decision was the answer to President Ebert's appeal to all the party leaders yesterday to bury their squabbles in a general effort to save Germany from economic collapse, as well as to impact the impression abroad that Germany is doing everything possible to pay the maximum in reparations.

Becomes an International Affair. Although the action of the committee is not final, as it must be approved at a plenary session of the socialist party tomorrow, there is no reason to believe it will be reversed. In the face of this opposition there does not seem to be anything for Herr Cuno, who already twice despaired of success, to do but return to President Ebert the invitation to become chancellor.

Under ordinary circumstances the crisis here would be regarded entirely as an internal question. The fact that the reparations commission, while Dr. Joseph Wirth was chancellor, recommended that the big industrial interests be given representation as essential to the stabilization of the mark, makes the cabinet situation a matter of international importance. Dr. Wirth, and even President Ebert, is of the opinion that the industrialists must be brought into the cabinet.

Charge Sabotage by Leaders. Yet, aware of the importance of this move, practically all the parliamentary leaders are accused of sacrificing the interests of the country for the interests of their parties. Squabbling between the parties when Germany is burning not only is creating a bad impression among foreigners, one leader declared, but is greatly strengthening the sympathy for a monarchy or Fascist dictatorship.

ARREST ALLEGED $50,000 "PONZI" AFTER LONG HUNT

Charged with operating a confidence game in connection with real estate deals, whereby he is said to have secured a number of victims of approximately $50,000, Samuel B. Peterson was arrested yesterday at his home at 1297 Pratt boulevard, ending a hunt which has been carried on since last June.

Peterson formerly operated a real estate office at 127 North Dearborn street. His former partner, James V. King, also is sought. Each armed with a separate warrant, three detectives yesterday succeeded in tracking Peterson to his Pratt boulevard apartment. Their knocking at the portal was answered by Mrs. Peterson, who said her husband was out of the city. Searching the house, they found Peterson hiding in a closet. His bonds were set at $14,000.

Shopping Systematically

AS December draws near, the business of shopping becomes more and more engrossing. Of course it should be done early, but if it is done systematically, too—planning the most important things first—it will yield the greatest gratification both now and when the Christmas season really comes.

And perhaps the phases to be first considered are those which concern the family as a whole—how the holidays shall be spent, what guests are to be invited and what parties given. All this is intimately connected with the beauty of the house and its efficiency. Are there enough linens, the right silver, the most gracious spirit in every room? Here the Housefurnishing Sections are most helpful in presenting the newest collections at moderate prices.

UNDAGE TAKES CE HUNT REINS AT ROCK ISLAND

ney's Newspaper Plant Is Raided.

Rock Island, Ill., Nov. 19.—[Special.] A new war against vice here was redoubled tonight, it became known. Word came that Attorney General J. Brundage would arrive Tuesday and take charge of grand jury investigation. An old war renewed with a dramatic raid on the Rock Island News, owned by John Looney, now a live from justice, where they had down guarded doors and seized an assortment of firearms.

Coming of the attorney general, will be accompanied by Assistant Attorney General Thomas R. Marshall, expert in the drawing of indictments, aroused hope tonight that the rings, held responsible for seven years and innumerable lesser cases, will be shattered through the intervention of the state authorities.

Pedigo Held Without Bail.
A raid, staged before daylight this morning, in which three rifles, two guns, and several revolvers and other weapons were taken, came on the heels of another important development in the cleanup campaign.

On Saturday night Lawrence Pedigo, 38 years old, said to be one of the city's most valued lieutenants, was taken on a murder charge. He was without bail in connection with the killing of William C. Gabel, a seaman, on the night of Aug. 31.

Responds to Public Demand.
The raid, which revealed the ramifications of Rock Island vice ring, that aroused the abiding element to demand a thorough investigation and prosecution, active H. S. Mosher was sent here in Springfield to direct the attack on underworld forces.

Effective Mosher headed local police his morning's raid on the plant of News, publication of which was needed a few weeks ago, following the flight to New Mexico. They had, the premises guarded by two men. These were taken into custody, taking in, the police, they said, not only the formidable assortment of arms and ammunition but also documentary evidence relied on to aid in prosecutions.

Arrest of Pedigo.
Pedigo, who had been under surveillance several weeks, was arrested when he came to the courthouse to confer with authorities on a minor charge against him. He is alleged to one of six men who shot and killed a police officer, also a power in the underworld, minutes after the latter had been in conference with prohibitionists.

The outbreak directly involving Pedigo came on Oct. 6, when in a fight street gang fight John Connor, Pedigo's son, was killed and another man seriously wounded. The father, sought on a charge of transporting a stolen automobile from Iowa to Illinois, fled soon after this.

FIND COLORED MAN DEAD.
A dead colored man, found dead yesterday by the Summerdale police in a coal shed at 4875 Broadway. No marks of violence were found on the body. An inquest will be held.

Cigarets Start Hotel Fire; 45 Men Flee in "Nighties"

Cigarette stubs dropped in a room on the fourth floor of the De Nord hotel, 508 North Clark street, started a fire which resulted in damage of $200 and sent forty-five men rushing to the street with their clothes in their arms. Fire truck No. 2, under command of Battalion Chief Schuhl, contained the blaze to two rooms.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Bray Drops Dead at St. Louis

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 19.—While preparing to take a group of prisoners to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kas., Charles M. Bray, 75 years old, a deputy United States marshal, dropped dead in his room here late this evening. Bray formerly was manager of a liquor store in Chicago and had been a deputy marshal for six years.

200 Women and Men Taken by Vice Raids

Under the direction of Lieut. John J. McCarthy from Chief Fitzmorris' office squads of detectives early yesterday visited more than a score of alleged disorderly houses and arrested approximately 200 men and women. Most of the raids were in the Cottage Grove and Stanton avenue districts. More than a hundred men and women were arrested in those districts alone.

The Costliest Rear Axle DUESENBERG

ORIGINAL STRAIGHT EIGHT—THE GRAND PRIX CAR

EACH shaft and its hub in the Duesenberg rear axle is formed of a single molybdenum steel forging; probably the costliest individual part of its type ever put into a car.

To reduce weight, a five-hour operation on expensive rifling machinery is required to hollow the immensely tough metal. The axle housing also is molybdenum steel. Its clean, graceful contour is unmarred by brake connections; a source of sound and attention utterly eliminated by Duesenberg four-wheel hydraulic brakes.

The automotive practice of all the world knows no rear axle more highly developed. Such infinite refinement throughout foreordained the Duesenberg to its place among the acknowledged great cars.

WINE AND BEER TAX PAYS BONUS BY THESE BILLS

Measures to Be Offered in Congress Today.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Two new soldiers' bonus bills will be introduced in the house tomorrow with provisions for financing them by taxes on beer, cider, and wines.

Representative John Phillip Hill (Md.) will submit a bill providing that the bonus be financed by a 20 per cent tax on beer and cider containing not more than 2.75 per cent alcohol.

Representative Britten (Ill.) will reintroduce the old bonus bill with the amendment for raising funds by a tax of $10 a barrel on domestic beer, $10 a barrel on imported beer, $10 a gallon on imported champagne, $5 a gallon on imported still wines, and $3 a gallon on domestic wines.

"This nominal tax will raise $700,000,000 annually," said Representative Britten. "It will pay the bonus and pay off our entire national debt in twenty years."

Pays Soldiers in Three Years.
The bill proposed by Representative Hill would provide for a strictly cash bonus to be paid to the soldiers in full within three years and payable on July 1, 1923, 1924, and 1925.

The compensation proposed in the measure, it is estimated, would require

MODERATION KEY TO LONG LIFE, OAK PARK WOMAN, 93, ASSERTS

"Just take an interest in everything human and adhere to moderation in all things."

MISS NANCY WOOD.

That is the precept laid down for those who would live to ripe old age and still keep young by Miss Nancy Wood, Oak Park's oldest woman, who today celebrates her ninety-third birthday.

Miss Wood was born in Chautauque, N. Y., a section of the chief population of which consisted at that time of Indians as yet untamed, about whom she relates many thrilling stories, back in 1829.

She is the granddaughter of the late Sir James Wood of London, England. Despite the fact that she is nearing the century mark, Miss Wood is active both in mind and body, taking daily walks and devoting much time to her books and fancy work, for she is an expert needlewoman. She makes her home with her sister, Mrs. Thomas L. West, 156 South Kendallworth avenue, Oak Park.

After giving her antidote for age, Miss Wood, with a twinkle in her eye, added: "The Tribune has kept me up with the times, and I have not missed reading it a morning for years and years."

government expenditure of $1,500,000,000, which would demand a treasury outlay of half a billion dollars for each of the three years.

"The bill would modify the Volstead act," said Representative Hill, "by substituting 2.75 per cent for one-half of 1 per cent alcoholic content permitted."

Makes Half Billion a Year.

"I do not include in this bill any local option feature, which was contained in a measure I introduced previously, for the reason that Mr. Volstead has officially stated that cider containing 3 per cent of alcohol is not intoxicating and not prohibited under the Volstead act and because the passage of this bill in no way disturbs the dry laws of Kansas and states having similar prohibition laws to those of Kansas."

"This bill will permit 2.75 per cent beer, cider, and fruit juices in New York, Maryland, Massachusetts, Illinois, Missouri, and other states that want them."

"The figures I presented to the ways and means committee of the house when I first introduced such a bill show that a 20 cent tax on 2.75 per cent beer and cider will raise one-half billion a year on the present basis of beer consumed in the United States."

Experience Versus Opinion in Advertising!!

"Many advertising failures are traced directly to the efforts of an advertising man to please every member of a board of directors. The attempt to incorporate everyone's ideas almost always results in costly confusion."

The thought of this paragraph No. 9 from our booklet, "48 Ideas on Advertising and Merchandising" is that advertising, peculiarly enough, is a subject on which nearly everyone feels free to express an opinion. Logically, there is one best result-getting plan and method for any advertising undertaking. Experienced counsel, then, is not only desirable, but highly economical.

For more than 16 years this advertising agency organization has served a remarkable group of great concerns. This insure experience and resources that will safeguard any advertising undertaking. We welcome inquiry as to our methods or for our booklet, "48 Ideas on Advertising and Merchandising."

The Dining Room, and— ORIENTAL RUGS

In the well-appointed dining room, simplicity—even to the point of severity—is the keynote of furniture, walls and fittings, yet the general effect must convey through the eye that feeling of warm hospitality which is so graciously expressed in person by host and hostess.

Nothing is so effective as a well-chosen Oriental Rug with its exquisite blending of color-harmony, in transforming the appearance of cold austerity into one of charming friendliness and welcome.

SON FORBIDDEN TO VISIT DYING MOTHER, CLAIM

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—For two weeks before her death her son was barred from the sick room of Mrs. Clara Bothwell Cowley, wealthy 63 year old "grandmother bride" on orders of her husband, the Rev. Griffith Cowley, pastor of the Congregational church at Solon Springs, Wis. It was learned today, however, that the son and his wife got in to see Mrs. Cowley.

Aside from frequent injections of strychnine, at Dr. Wilcox's orders, Miss Strand said she observed no indication of poison.

The minister refused to discuss the case today, sending word that he was too busy with church matters.

"If there is anything more to say, I'll say it when the time comes," he added.

Immediate attention was directed toward Chicago today, where Dr. William D. McNally is engaged in a chemical analysis of the vital organs to determine if poison figured in the cause of death. He was expected to announce his findings early in the week.

Fight Over Will Sure.

Meantime, should no poison be found, indications were that the case will in any event develop into a formidable will fight. Mr. Cowley has admitted that after his marriage to the wealthy

Dr. Wilcox and myself were the only persons permitted. The reason Mr. Cowley gave was that too many people around made Mrs. Cowley nervous.

Children Were Barred.

"When Mr. Bothwell and his wife and daughter got there from Hammond they also were excluded."

Mr. Cowley himself became ill a week before Mrs. Cowley died, however, and then the son and his wife got in to see Mrs. Cowley.

WOMEN AT JAIL AS DEATH NEARS MARY M'SWINEY

BY PAUL WILLIAMS.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
DUBLIN, Nov. 19.—(By The Chicago Tribune.)—Annie MacSwiney sat alone under the stars on this, the third night of her vigil and sympathetic hunger strike at the gate of Mountjoy prison.

Swathed in blankets and huddled in a big wooden chair, her face a pitiful figure in the laneway between the outer and the main gate to the historic jail where her sister Mary is reported to be weaker on the sixteenth day of her fast.

A number of women, who had been for hours with Annie, organized about thirty others, who twice visited the mansion of the archbishop of Dublin without getting nearer to him than his private park. Later Kathleen Barry, a sister of Kevin, joined Annie by squeezing through the outer gate beside a military motor lorry.

This afternoon the leaders of the women who visited the archbishop held a protest meeting in O'Connell street. A shot was fired as a military truck passed. When the soldiers replied six persons fell wounded, one of whom probably will die.

De Valera in Appeal.
DUBLIN, Nov. 19.—(By The Associated Press.)—Eamon de Valera, leader of the Irish republicans, in a message to the people of Ireland today, asserts that the British government has given orders for the execution of Sir John Childers, and declares that such a crime will "make the men and women hang their heads in shame."

Hassel's "Gridiron," $9

We're proud to recommend the Gridiron to our customers; if you buy a pair on our advice, we know we've made a customer for life. It's a good-looking, custom made style of the very best quality leather and workmanship; the last itself is a combination model that seems to fit most every foot just right; snug on heel and over instep, giving support to the whole foot structure. Comes in fine, smooth, pliable black or dark tan calfskin at $9; genuine Australian Kangaroo, $10. Mail orders shipped postpaid anywhere.

There aren't many places where you can be sure of satisfaction. When you find one, you generally stick to it.

We determined that this business should be built on a satisfied-customer basis. We have always guaranteed every pair of Hassel shoes. We always will.

You can depend on Hassel's quality and value; it's guaranteed as well as built in. If there's anything you don't like about a Hassel shoe, bring it back.

In our huge stock there is a wide variety of styles for young men. There are, of course, all the conservative styles, too. The prices are just about right: $5, $6, $7, $8, $9, $10. Come in and look them over.

IRON RULE FOR GERMANY BORN IN TURK DEAL

which Lord Curzon demanded as the price of participating in the near east peace conference, tonight.

The two principal questions, however, the date of evacuation of Ghanak and Gallipoli, and the military measures to be used against the Turks if they resist the peace conditions, were not discussed. These two important questions will be dealt with tomorrow at Lausanne. While the opening of the peace conference has been arranged for tomorrow, it may be postponed again if no agreement is reached.

Lord Curzon tonight discussed with Premier Poincaré and Mussolini, frontiers, minorities, capitulations and other questions, but the date of evacuation of the Dardanelles and Constantinople were studiously avoided by the British, who wish a permanent military and naval occupation in the Dardanelles. It is proposed to use the league of nations, which the British dominate, as a cloak for this military occupation.

Italy Demands Equality. The most interesting part of the conference occurred at the beginning, when Premier Mussolini declared he had come to Turin less to discuss the Turkish peace than the future position of Italy in the entente. He demanded a position of absolute equality in the entente.

Premier Poincaré and Lord Curzon proceeded to Turin when Premier Mussolini declined to meet them in Lausanne.

"I am waiting here," was his answer when French secretaries phoned from Lausanne saying Premier Poincaré and Lord Curzon had arrived there and hoped he would come to meet them. Sig. Mussolini met the French and British officials at the station and escorted them to the Grand hotel, where he played host at dinner while a Swiss jazz band played "Some Sunny Day" and Swiss maidens danced. All three returned to Lausanne tonight.

U. S. to Take Active Part.

LAUSANNE, Nov. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—The indications tonight that the representatives of the United States government will take an active part in the near east peace conference, which will open tomorrow with a plenary session at the Lausanne casino, have suddenly given the conference great international importance. America will not only observe she will speak, and speak out vigorously when she thinks the occasion demands it and in a general way will insist on every right of participation enjoyed by other countries in all things, except actual voting.

Such, the Associated Press understands, is the American position, and it is founded on the fact that the United States, like the European powers, possesses interests in Turkey and upon the American conviction that the United States cannot sit idly by and allow other world nations to dispose of the future of the Turkish state without taking into consideration the views of the United States.

Turks Make New Demands.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—On the eve of the peace conference at Lausanne, Rafet Pasha, governor of Constantinople, has renewed his demands for control of the police, the magistrature, the telegraph, passport, and other branches of the civil administration. Rafet insists that the Turkish police shall exercise control over all nationalities, while the allied gendarmerie shall limit its jurisdiction to its own soldiers and sailors.

The allied generals decline to relinquish their present control over foreign residents.

BOGUS EARL OF DUNBLANE GIVEN 2½ YEARS IN JAIL

CHARLEVOIX, Mich., Nov. 19.—Alfred J. Walker, Griggs, self styled "Earl of Dunblane," left tonight to serve two and a half years in the state penitentiary following conviction of larceny. Worn and haggard, his suave manner gone, the former financial wizard whose checkered career of stock promotions stretched across the continent, spent his last day in the Charlevoix county jail in frequent conferences with "Sara," his "American countess," and formerly Mrs. Sara Turney-Dye, daughter of a wealthy Chicago contractor.

Cardinal Mercier, Victim of Fla. Is Getting Better

BRUSSELS, Nov. 19.—Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, is ill with influenza. His condition tonight was reported as progressing favorably.

THIS chair might well have been discovered in some fine old English home.

There is a fine touch in turnings and the shaping of arm that seems hardly possible in a modern piece made in quantity as this of course had to be to attain so low a price.

The framework is of solid mahogany in an antique finish and tapestry cover is of a pattern appropriate to the period.

How Do You Choose your Guests?

YOU select pictures, music, flowers, books to add to the charm of your home. But how do you select your guests? Merely to pay off social debts? Or for the real enjoyment of yourself and your family—a succession of charming, well-mannered well-informed visitors?

NONE can be a more delightful guest than the Woman's Home Companion. It makes you know men and women on the other side of the world as well as it knows the members of your own family. It helps you find time from your housework to thrill with the life and strange customs of distant lands. You make new friends in the Woman's Home Companion. You meet new people—interesting, unusual, picturesque people doing and saying stirring things.

SOME are swashbucklers, a few are rogues. But all of them—in every story every month—are decent-minded and clean-tongued visitors you are glad to have the Woman's Home Companion bring into your home. For the 1,750,000 readers of the Woman's Home Companion could not be held by any cheap or sensational appeal. They are real women, too busy with their homes and friends and clubs and jobs to be interested in anything but the truest values. And to serve them all, not as an entertainer nor as a teacher, but as a friendly interesting human companion, is the one and only business of this magazine.

Ben Trevison and Lip Malvy's Wife

Ben Trevison lived in XVIIIth Century London. Lip Malvy's wife sailed for Africa on a modern steamer to find her husband in the Forest of Wounded Elephants. Yet you must look on adjoining pages of the Woman's Home Companion. And you visit with Simon, the tinner in Biblical Palestine and grow up with Flora January in a little New England town and all the South Seas with bold Captain Babcock. For eight stories of real people—people you will like to know—in clean stirring adventure get the new December number of the Woman's Home Companion.

Old Kings in New Jobs

Before the War we loved to read about thrones and palaces and glittering jewels. Suddenly they all dropped out of sight. What are the royal families doing now? What do people think of them? What do they say about themselves? Frederick L. Collins went to Europe to find out these things for you. Read his "What's Happened to Royalty" one of five special articles in the Woman's Home Companion for December.

The Play You Must Not Miss

Every month the Woman's Home Companion registers its endorsement of the most distinguished play just opening in New York. In the new December number see "The Old Maid" by Don Marquis, with stage portraits of Clem Hawley, Nellie, the hired girl, and her friend Al. Besides seven other pages of attractive pictures in the alcove section there are pages in bright color—brilliant as the original oil paintings.

Things No Bachelor Can Resist

No bachelor, they say, can resist the cheerful wreath-in-the-window Christmas atmosphere. But to make sure of it, every girl must be able to tie up packages and sing carols and mix mince pies all day and still have her eyes bright and her complexion smooth. See "How to be Good Looking though it's Christmas" in the December Woman's Home Companion. "Good Looks" is one of the nine helpful departments in every number.

Trail-Blazers of the Drama

Women who stage little plays for their own clubs are blazing the trail from coast to coast for progress in new American drama. What guest is more welcome than one who will tell you of a score of entertainments your club can give. Club programs of every variety, artistic and individualized, are carefully worked out for you in Constanta D'Arcy Mackay's "Modern Revels" in the new Woman's Home Companion.

All Christmas in One Book

You will find the December Woman's Home Companion an absolutely complete guide for your Christmas. Things to make, buy, play, wear, eat, cook, sing, give, do. Actual pictures of 138 different Christmas gifts you can make yourself or buy at small expense. From a toy mule to a community Christmas tree; from a dainty four-o'clock apron for a girl friend to a complete dramatic program for your Woman's Club—it's all there! And all through it the real spirit of Christmas—the intimate something that is YOU.

REPORT ON PLAN TO SETTLE ALLIED DEBTS DUE TODAY

Addressing itself chiefly to post-war problems, domestic and international, the fifteenth annual convention of the southern commercial congress will today open a three days' session at the Congress hotel.

The feature of the opening proceedings probably will come this evening, when an international trade commission appointed by the congress to make an investigation tour of Europe is scheduled to submit its report on "A Practical Plan for Settlement of German Reparation and Allied Debts." This report will be forwarded to President Harding.

The congress will convene in the afternoon. An address by Maj. Gen. John F. Ryan on "The Maintenance of World Peace," one by Senator John K. Shields of Tennessee on "Our Changing Constitution," and a third by Gov. Small will mark the opening session.

Jacob M. Dickinson, former secretary of war, and Julius Rosenwald will deliver addresses of welcome. Dr. Clarence J. Owens, president of the organization, will respond.

There will be a conference of foreign consuls tonight. Among the speakers will be Honore Nuyens, British consul general; Antoinin Barthélemy, French consul in Chicago; B. Singer, consul general of Nicaragua; Dr. Albert H. Putney, honorary consul of Persia; H. Bauman, Danish consul; Zygmunt Nowicki, Polish consul; Ralph Metcalf of the international trade commission, and Dr. Harry Pratt Judson of the University of Chicago.

Notables Who Will Speak.
Trade relations between the United States and Germany will be the subject of an address tomorrow by Dr. Otto Wiedfeldt, German ambassador to the United States, and Señor Don Frederico Alfonso Peset, Peruvian ambassador, will cite "Barriers to Direct Trade Relations Between the Americas."

Others scheduled to speak tomorrow forenoon are Don Rafael H. Elizalde, minister of Ecuador; Dr. Bedrich Stepanek, Czechoslovakian minister; Señor Adolfo Ballivian, Bolivian minister; Stephan Panaretov, Bulgarian minister; Axel Leonard Astrom, minister from Finland, and Soterios Nicholson, formerly of the Greek legation staff.

Speakers tomorrow afternoon: Senator N. E. Dial of South Carolina, Congressman Adolph J. Sabath of Chicago, Chevalier Guglielmo Silenzi, Italian consul; Col. F. L. Williamson of North Carolina, Joseph T. Brownless of Tennessee, Louis S. Gottlieb of Washington, D. C.; Senator John W. Harrold of Oklahoma, and Maj. Gen. George C. Richard, U. S. A.

Lakes-Sea Waterway Subject.
An agricultural conference will be held tomorrow evening, addresses on farm credit, financing and crop distribution of the south featuring the program. Carl Vrooman, former assistant secretary of agriculture, will be among the speakers.

John C. Ruge, director of the Mississippi Valley association, will speak on Wednesday forenoon on "Linking the Atlantic Ocean with the Mississippi River," while H. C. Gardner, president of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidelwater association, will lead a round table discussion on "Linking Chicago to the Atlantic Ocean," and David L. Goodwillie, president of the Union League club's committee of 100, on "Retention of the Great Lakes Naval Station."

Intersectional social problems will be considered Wednesday afternoon.

At a banquet closing the congress on Wednesday evening Gov. Samuel R. McKelvie of Nebraska, Gov. Albert E. Ritchie of Maryland, Gov. E. Lee Trinkle of Virginia, and Ambassador Peset of Peru will be speakers.

The southern commercial congress, which was founded in 1887, but disrupted during the civil war, resumed activities fifteen years ago.

DOCTOR ASKS DEATH INQUIRY.

The coroner's office is making an investigation into the death of George Mame, 6255 Indiana avenue, who died at the Ochsenshild hospital, 5250 Ellis avenue, of unknown cause.

Dr. W. B. MacGregor, osteopath, who attended Mame, notified the coroner's office and asked that a postmortem examination be made.

Dentists say
USE BOTH!

It is not enough to protect teeth from one attack alone

Dentists say—
Guard them from two destructive forces

OPENLY on the very surface—that is where one dread enemy is attacking your teeth. The other works hidden in the crevices. The destruction it causes is often done before you are aware it has begun.

The first is dental mucin—the unsightly coating sometimes called film. This is responsible for the yellowing of teeth—and eventually causes tartar. The second is the acid decay that comes from the fermentation of tiny food particles.

Dentists are now recommending a new and more thorough method of caring for the teeth—a method that guards from both these destructive forces.

Sanitol Tooth Paste and Liquid Antiseptic give your teeth the complete protection they need.

White, beautiful surfaces

Sanitol Tooth Paste keeps the teeth smooth and beautifully white. The glycerine in Sanitol softens, then the fine chalk removes the ugly dental mucin. Because it removes this filmy coating so effectively it is unusually successful in restoring whiteness to teeth that have already begun to yellow. It contains only the finest ingredients.

Clean, healthy crevices

Sanitol Liquid Antiseptic floods into the most minute crevices, the places your brush cannot reach, and counteracts acid decay. More than this, it soothes and strengthens soft, tender gums (often the forerunner of Pyorrhea) and frees the breath from all odor.

You will be delighted with the way your teeth regain their natural whiteness. You will be glad to know all remote parts of your mouth are thoroughly cleansed.

Mail the coupon for generous samples of both—free.

ALASKA'S YEARLY CATCH OF FISH IS NEAR 50 MILLION

BY BOB BECKER.
ARTICLE VII.

Alaska has two kinds of gold. One is the yellow gold that comes from the quartz mines and placer fields. There is another kind—wet gold from the Pacific ocean and by that the fishermen mean Alaska's enormous yield from fishing, as $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 worth of fish are taken from Alaskan waters every year.

In view of this income derived from the fishing industry of the territory it is not surprising that the millions of pounds of salmon, herring, cod and halibut sold each year are called wet gold. Along the coast the work of gathering in this harvest from the Pacific gives employment to hundreds of men and often is the only reason for the existence of some of the smaller towns. During the fishing season fleets of gasboats equipped to handle the large hauls of salmon or the big catches of halibut ply up and down the coast of Alaska to return from the seining or the trolling grounds to the towns or canneries, where their catch can be disposed of.

$12,000,000 in Labor.

In 1920 it is estimated that fishermen in Alaskan waters received $12,000,000 for their labor and the money spent for supplies during a season is no small item in the business of the town which outfits fishermen.

The catching of salmon is the biggest fish business in Alaska today. The waters of the territory are blessed with several species of this valuable food fish and in 1920 alone the value of salmon caught in Alaskan waters was more than $15,000,000.

At the head of the list of salmon that fishermen go after is the king salmon. This handsome fish, which will attain a size of thirty, forty or fifty pounds, is in great demand and aside from its commercial value it furnishes plenty of sport when taken on a single hook.

Other Salmon Types.

Then there is the silver or coho, the sockeye or red salmon as it is known to the trade, the humpback or pink, and the chum salmon all of which are valuable food fish. These come in from the sea to spawn and as they follow along the shore line, trying to find a freshwater stream in which they can spawn, they are caught by the thousands. Those that get by the traps placed along the shores are taken near the mouths of the streams up which the fish are trying to go.

As the fish mill about at the mouth of a stream before ascending they are preyed upon by grills and eagles. After they get up the creek and the eggs are laid the trout descend ravenously upon the nests and devour the eggs by the thousands.

Bears also take their toll. Both the brown bear and the black bear are fond of fish and during the summer they live almost all of the time near a salmon stream, where they can gorge upon the fresh fish. While these natural enemies are preying upon the salmon, man is seining and trapping them by the thousands for canning purposes, and it is one of the wonders of the northland that the fish have kept their numbers as they have.

Halibut Catch Heavy.

Next in importance to the salmon industry is the halibut fishing. This is a far different type of fishing, as halibut are taken mostly on set lines which are put down deep over the halibut banks. The gear is heavy, difficult to handle and the work of hauling in a seventy-five or 100 pound fish in a heavy sea is arduous.

Although the customs reports show that about 15,000,000 pounds of halibut are caught on the average each year, it is likely that the amount of halibut caught is nearer $5,000,000 pounds. Exact information is lacking, as some of the fishermen are reluctant to state definitely just what localities produced the halibut.

Probably the fastest growing fishing industry in Alaska is the herring packing business. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been invested recently in plants to put up herring by the Scotch cure method. The Alaska herring are claimed to be as good as the Norwegian fish of that species and there is a good market for them. During the last season thousands of barrels were shipped from Alaska to Seattle, the bulk of the output being packed in western Alaska.

Capt. Gallery Finds His Stolen Car Left in Road

Since late Thursday night, friends and relatives, led by Capt. Michael Gallery, conducted a search for his $1,400 automobile which was stolen from his garage in back of his home, 4638 North Paulina street. The search came to an end at 3 o'clock Sunday morning when Capt. Gallery, on information from a friend that he saw the car going west on Higgins road, found the automobile abandoned on the side of the road, six miles west of Chicago.

DAILY HOROSCOPE

Doris Blake Says:

TODAY IS LUCKY FOR REFORMERS.

Astrologers read that today's planetary sway with Venus and Jupiter is most auspicious. Mercury and Mars square a lucky one. Lawyers, teachers, and writers should make the most of this day's opportunities. Reformers may make their voices heard above the multitude and expose scandals regarding inefficiency which should result in the removal of offenders and protect the layman's purse.

Those whose birth date it is have the augury of an unusually successful and happy year.

Your birth traits lead you strongly toward the direction of public and political life, and you are likely to be found in positions of responsibility and trust. Your intentions are right. You are an independent thinker. People trust you. You know how to keep your own counsel. Only by playing upon your love can secrets be wormed out of you. Your weakness is an abnormal appetite for flattery. You demand too much of it, which may lead to discord in the home if your taste fails you on this. Children born on this day are likely to prove most reliable and trustworthy, energetic and enterprising.

He's Hard Hit.

"Dear Miss Blake: You have no doubt met with some strange cases, but I think this is the keep your own counsel. There is a girl with whom I'd like to get acquainted, but somehow it seems impossible. I have called her up twice, but she will not consider me unless formally introduced. I know no one who is acquainted with her. Can you help me out? Edwin."

No matter how hard hit you may be, Edwin, you should never telephone like that. The girl will think you not a gentleman. She is right. You will have to hope and pray that fate will send along the third party.

Why Corns?

Just say

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and colonial's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown morose" and "blackish" face, tired feeling, sick headache, torpid liver, constipation, you'll find quick and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night and say, "I feel better. Try them, too."

HAROLD TEEN—NEVER TAKE YOUR MIND OFF YOUR WORK.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Thickening Sauces and Soups.

At the national meeting of the Home Economics association last summer at Corvallis, Ore., one home economics woman discussed this: "Factors Determining the Quality of White Sauce in Large Quantity Cooking." The abbreviated report of what she said reads: "Mixing hot fat and flour together before adding to the milk was shown to be a better method of mixing white sauce than was mixing cold fat and flour. Cooking in the steam jacketed kettle gave better results than the double boiler. When multiplying the recipe for half pint quantity by sixteen, so as to make a gallon, it was found necessary to cut the amount of fat used by 33.3 to 50 per cent. Equal weights of fat and flour seem to give the best results in this quantity. The sauce was found to become thinner as it continued to cook. Salt, when added before cooking, caused thinning and curdling; it should be added at the end of cooking."

Surely this is a great point, the reduction of the thickening material, as quantities of liquid are increased, whether the liquid thickened by milk for a white sauce or chicken stock for a chicken soup.

UNHAPPY: CLIPPING THE HAIRS OFF close to the skin with manicure scissors is less stimulating to growth of superfluous hair than shaving or the use of chemical depilatories. Coat Dresses Score an Autumn Triumph

by Crimine Love

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—That there is no redress from the coat dress is indicated by both shops and shoppers. Every spot to which you turn in New York nowadays is dotted with this garment, which is developed in many materials and with infinite variety of trimming. Velours de laine, duvetyn, twill, velvet, matisse, gaudy fabrics, knitted materials—one finds them all represented in the coat dress brigade.

Naturally, such a range of trimming bespeaks a variability of degree in the dressiness of the garment. This is entirely realized. The coat dress when carried out, for example, in frosty white gaudy satin trimmed with black monkey fur is suitable for the most formal afternoon reception or musical. When, on the other hand, some unsophisticated fabric like twill is the medium, you feel it is the most unpretentious of frocks.

Whatever the material employed, there is usually a quantity of fur employed on these costumes. That brings us to an objection cherished by many a practical mind against the coat dress. "It can't be worn with a wrap," say they, "it's only for mid-seasons." It is quite true that the coat dress does forbid the average outer garment. However, fashionable women both in Paris and New York solve the difficulty by wearing during the winter months a long fur cape in conjunction with the coat dress.

Above is shown a delightful coat dress with the fashionable new tier skirt. This is developed in navy blue.

and is trimmed with black and white bands of self color embroidery.

Sunday fashion page will be found in the New Color Section.

Wonderland Way to Run Through Mount Vernon, Ill.
Mount Vernon, Ill., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Mount Vernon has obtained the right of the other great tourist's route to the city by closing a deal with the Indiana division of the Atlantic-Pacific Wonderland Way route, which comes into the city from Evansville, Ind., via Carmel, McLeansville and Dahlgren. This is a federal road maintained by the government and is a scenic route which runs along the Ohio river in Indiana to Cincinnati.

ANSWER TO COMMON ERRORS
Mistake does not allow the man to take on the girl's arm at any time. He may offer his arm under certain circumstances, but with the present etiquette the more popular way is to walk side by side.

"What's in the Paper Tonight?"

The best newspaper gives the quickest answer

THERE are almost as many kinds of newspaper "dress" as there are newspapers. That is, every newspaper displays its news and features in its own particular fashion, and while many of them seem alike the skilled observer can always detect sharp points of difference.

But newspaper style has nothing whatever to do with the character of the newspaper or the quality of the news it purveys.

A wholly spectacular newspaper can—and often does—lurk behind a shield of apparent conservatism, while another may so "dress" its front page as to APPEAR spectacular, yet carry only the most conservative of news and features.

The theory of the Evening American's make-up is the theory of the store window. It has merchandise—news—for sale. Some of its merchandise is more important than the rest of it, and just as a good merchant "dresses" his windows, so does the Evening American "dress" its front page with the variety of its wares.

And the fact that it displays two or even three pieces of news conspicuously is nothing more or less than good salesmanship.

Read the Evening American carefully. Over 1,200,000 of your friends and neighbors do it every day. You will find, as they find, that it is an alert, aggressive, reliable and READABLE newspaper, vigorous in its youth, yet conservative in its handling of news facts of every character.

You will also find that the Evening American gives the quickest answer to the question—

JOIE RAY, LOOMIS
BOYS TO DRAW
A. A. U. SENTENCE

REJECT PADDOCK MARKS

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The national record committee of the Amateur Athletic union tonight rejected the application of Charles W. Paddock of the Los Angeles Athletic club for records in the 60, 70, 75, 80, 100, 125, and 150 yard sprints and run events.

New York, Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Under the delegates of the Amateur Athletic union in their thirty-fourth annual convention at the Hotel McAlpin tomorrow afternoon overrule the recommendations of the A. A. U. to suspend the records of the Los Angeles Athletic club until the national registration committee meets in December.

The national registration committee at its preliminary meeting today recommended that Ray, with Frank Loomis, and Jo G. Loomis, both crack athletes, be suspended until Dec. 31, and that the athletes be compelled to refund to the national registration committee sums as follows:

Joie Ray, $100.
Frank Loomis, $20.
Jo Loomis, $5.

Expense Accounts Too High.
The action of the committee, Chairman Frederick W. Ruben, announced, followed the results of an investigation into charges of alleged exorbitant expense accounts of Ray and the two Loomis brothers, on the occasion of the appearance of the three in competition here in February, 1921, Chairman Ruben said.

The text of the national registration committee recommendation follows: "As a result of information at hand concerning Joie Ray, Frank Loomis, and Jo Loomis, it is moved that they be suspended until Dec. 31, 1922, inclusive, and they return the following amounts to the national registration committee: Ray, $100; Frank Loomis, $20, and Jo Loomis, $5. And in default of payment by Dec. 31, the said athletes be permanently suspended and the clubs in question be censured."

Ray May Appeal.
Under the rules of the A. A. U., it was explained, the findings of the national registration committee must be submitted, along with other committee reports, to the national convention for adoption or rejection. A privilege of appeal is permitted an athlete, either directly or through a representative, in case of suspension. An appeal may be made on behalf of Ray tomorrow.

The investigation into this celebrated case has extended over a period of a year. Following an investigation by the Metropolitan A. A. U. registration committee.

With the report of the Central A. A. U. committee was a recommendation providing that if Ray was willing to refund the amount charged for the expenses of his wife and child, the runner would receive suspension.

The national committee rejected the Central A. A. U. committee to ascertain Ray's attitude and there the case rested until today.

Decide on Women's Athletics.
The question of whether the A. A. U. should assume control over women's athletics will be submitted for decision to the convention. The committee on women's athletics, of which Dr. William N. Burdette of Baltimore was chairman, decided not to disclose the results of the committee's deliberations.

Favorable action was taken on the application for reinstatement of the following:
A. R. Kivist and Harry Smith, who have been on the ineligible list since 1915. Frank Materson, who has been ineligible since 1916.

LOCAL HISTORY OF CASE.
Frank Loomis turned professional a year ago and coached at Hastings college, Neb., while Jo Loomis retired from A. A. U. competition two years ago. Joie Ray still is competing for the tri-club club, but the suspension until Dec. 31 will not affect him, as no meeting of importance are on the calendar in the interim. Ray recently has been doing amateur boxing.

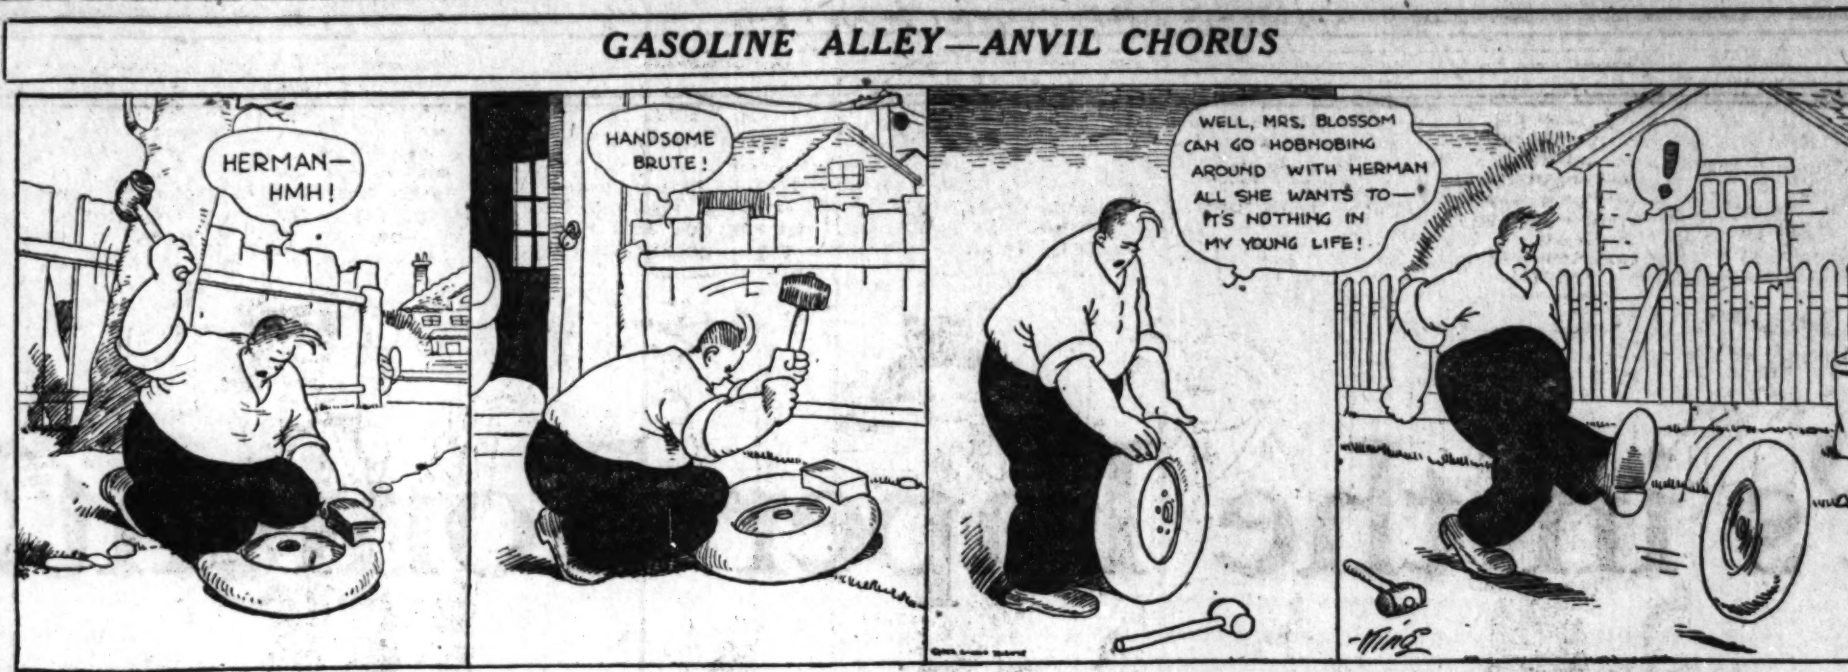

When the matter of Ray's alleged exorbitant expense demands first came up the explanation was made that Ray had been unable without his wife and infant to go east to compete in February of 1921, until the New York clubs, eager to secure him as a headliner in their games, simply assumed the expenses of his family.

FARM AND GARDEN BY FRANK RIDGWAY

JACK FROST FLASHES SIGNAL OF FROST STORMING TIME.

JACK FROST has visited all the flower beds. As soon as the foliage of such bulbous plants as dahlias, gladioli, giant or summer hyacinths and cannas is wilted by the frost the stems and leaves soon die and the bulbs are then ready to dig up and store for the winter.

In preparing the bulbs for winter cut the stems off about six or eight inches above the ground; leaving a portion of the stems protruding the tissue of the bulbs. The bulbs are then ready to dig up and store in a cool place. Immediately after the bulbs are dug they must be stored in a cool place, preferably in a cellar where they can be kept at a fairly uniform temperature around 50 or 60 degrees Fahrenheit. They are sometimes kept successfully in basements spread out on a concrete floor; wherever Irish potatoes will keep in a good place for store bulbs. If the bulbs get too dry they shrivel up and will not grow, while too much moisture will start the bulbs growing and they will be weakened. If piled up in a furnace room, spread them in layers with the roots down.

MANDELL AND SANGOR
CLASH TONIGHT IN GO

Local boxing fans will wend their way to Milwaukee tonight to see the ten round bout between Sammy Mandell of Rockford and Joey Sangor, Jew with pride of the Cream City, to be staged by Tom Andrews in the Ice Palace.

Middle west promoters have been angling for this match for months, the Milwaukee boxing conductors especially. Sangor has taken the place of Frankie Mitchell in the eyes of Cream City fans, who have made Joey the favorite. Sangor's string of victories lately have brought him to the front ranks of his class, and he is expected to make the Rockford boy step all the way.

Sangor Gains Local Fans.
Sangor made a decided impression upon local fans when he worked at the Arcade gymnasium last week. Joey showed the railbirds he packs a punch in his right hand and has a good defense for a left hand. He is fairly fast on his feet and can take a lot of punishment.

Mandell and his manager, Eddie Long, have no fear of Sangor. They claim he has beaten a lot of second raters and has not been put to the test. Sammy, however, is not holding his opponent too cheap and has trained faithfully. He left for the battle-ground yesterday accompanied by his manager and trainer.

Make 122 Pounds Weight.
Both fighters will make weight at 122 pounds at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The main event will be supported by three other contests, and popular prices of $1, $2 and $3 will prevail.

The "Haval post of the American Legion will conduct its bi-monthly show aboard the U. S. S. Commodore at the foot of Randolph street on Friday night. Tommy O'Brien of Milwaukee and K. O. Jenkie of Toledo, two lightweights, will meet in the main event. Three six round preliminaries will precede the main event.

Jimmy Clabby, Hammond middleweight, left his camp in Chicago to meet "Denny Tommy" Comiskey in a twelve round decision contest on Friday night. Manager Larry Lichtenstein will leave on Tuesday to second the fighter.

TALABER ISSUES DEF FOR GO ON MAT WITH ENGLE

Low Talaber, who has been hitting all the high spots in an effort to get Middleweight Wrestling Champion Johnny Meyers into the ring, made a brazen challenge to Heine Engle of Duquesne, who has been the main attraction of the other day and immediately the def was accepted. Talaber told Heine he could throw him once in six rounds. Heine just laughed and said he was willing to take a chance. The more Talaber thought of it the more he was convinced he could do the trick and drew a check for $100 in favor of Al. Olson, chairman of the city athletic commission, to stand as a forfeit, and insisted that Engle cover it. Now it's up to the Duquesne man.

Greb to Split with His Manager After Nov. 27

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Harry Greb, American light-heavyweight champion, announced last night that he will be through with his manager, George Engle, after their contract expires Nov. 27. He said Jimmy Mason, his former manager, made more money for him in one year than Engle has in two.

ROMEO BEAT SHAMROCKS.

Jimmy Ryan's Romeo of Pulaski park beat a bunch of Shamrock boys in the Shamrock 13 to 1 at Pulaski park yesterday. Ryan beat five boys for the win.

SOUTH CHICAGO CLOSE
VICTOR IN GUN CLUB
RACE AT LINCOLN PARK

SOUTH Chicago Gun club trapshooters triumphed over Lincoln Parkers in a 50 target team race at the latter club yesterday.

Counting the highest five scores, the South Chicagoans finished 14 targets to the good, 239 to 225.

Two shoot-offs were required to determine the winner of the gold watch trophy presented to the highest shooter on the teams. Ward Burtes and Jack Smith, both of South Chicago, were tied with 46s at the end of the 50 targets and both broke 23 targets in the first shoot-off, but in the second elimination Smith won by 23 to 22.

C. G. Jewett and Ward Burtes were tied for honors in the 100 targets. Jewett, 84; H. E. Dickman, 83; A. P. Walker, 81; Jack Smith, 80; Ed Troch, 79; Ed Johnson, 77; F. F. HOPPE LEADING AS
CUE MEET NEARS END

New York, Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Four more games remain to be played in the international 15-2 ball billiard tournament at all times. Tuesday night at the Hotel Pennsylvania.

Unless there should be a tie the champion will be crowned Tuesday night.

Although Willie Hoppe has been successful in all three of his starts, defeating Edward Horne, Weller Cochran and Roger Conti, he still has two strong opponents to meet.

Tomorrow afternoon he will play Erich Hagelacher. The German has played four games and lost them all. He has not been in his best stroke, but is a dangerous player at all times. Tuesday night Hoppe and Jack Schaefer will meet.

Schaefer Must Beat Hoppe.
Schaefer has played three games and won two. Horne defeated him, but Jack best Hagelacher and Conti, and still must meet Cochran, besides Hoppe. Schaefer and Cochran will play tomorrow night. This leaves Horne and Conti to clash Tuesday afternoon.

Of the six players entered in the tournament for the world's professional championship, Hoppe has played the best billiards. It has taken him thirty-two innings to accumulate the 1500 points necessary to win his three games. This gives him a grand average of 46.28-32.

The next best grand average is that of Schaefer, who has made 1,321 points in forty innings, for a mark of 33.14. Close behind the champion is Horne, with 31.34-44 for four games, in which he scored 1,677 in fifty-four innings.

Tough Road for Jack.
As the tournament stands now, Schaefer must defeat both Cochran and Hoppe while Hoppe is being 40. Hoppe and Hagelacher as well as Schaefer, for the present champion to retain his title. If they both win their matches tomorrow the Schaefer will have to defeat Hoppe to tie Willie for first place. This would necessitate a play-off and would be a recurrence of what happened in the tournament at Chicago a year ago.

NOTES OF THE CUE ROOMS.
Dave McAndless, well known billiard player, and Jimmy Matsumura, the little Japanese, played a 15-2 ball match at 8 o'clock this evening at the Madison Square rooms. After the game they gave exhibitions of difficult and fancy shots.

A triple tie for first place between Forney, Ravlin, and Kerber is the result of last week's play in the Benning-Mussey long three cushion tournament. Forney won three games and lost one and games this week are expected to break the tie and find a pace setter. Today Smith plays White at Monroe street.

A special 50 point three cushion match will be played between Pierre Monpome, the Mexican expert, and Louis Fellows Wednesday at Benning's Madison street room. The game will start at 4:30 o'clock.

Hamlin Park in 8 to 0 win over Smith Boosters.

With Schoenfeldt twirling shutout ball and get some flapping lustily, Hamlin Park indoor team walloped the Clayton Smith Boosters, 8 to 0, yesterday at the Hamlin gym. Schoenfeldt had perfect control. He fanned twenty-two and did not yield a pass.

Shaw, business manager of Chicago Civic Opera company, by Aurelio Fabiani, erstwhile violinist of the opera.

The suit revolves about promise made by Fabiani to Ewell, a soprano with opera experience, that, in return for the to him of $4,000, he would a contract with the opera.
This alleged promise is a
